AROUND THE CITY.

The Complaint of Old Man Warner.

ANOTHER NEW CABLE LAID.

Two People Injured by a Collision. A Horse Dashes Into a Buggy.

One of the queerest cases on record was filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday. The complaint is made by an old man named F. O. Warner, and William Graze is the party complained of. There are ten distinct specifications in the complaint. The first charges Graze with wantonly, wilfully and maliciously harassing and annoying Warner, by sending him impertinent, abusive and insulting letters during the past four months, and also to his family on Martin street.

The second count charges defendant with maliciously reporting plaintiff to the Health Officer, falsely accusing him of keeping a nuisance (a cow yard) on his premises, in order that the Health Officer may come to and inspect and annoy the plaintiff and his family. The third count charges Graze with wantonly persuading Councilman Hamilton of the Sixth ward, to introduce and have passed an ordinance in the City Council declaring the premises of plaintiff a public nuisance.

The fourth count avers that defendant wilfully circulated a report among plaintiff's neighbors and customers that plaintiff kept and sold the milk of several cows which he had fed upon swill, slops and other filthy, noxious food, and that the milk sold by him was poisoned and unfit for human or other consumption.

The fifth allegation is that the defendant made use of the following language: "Warner throws his slops and filth over his fence into my back yard."

The sixth count charges the use by defendant of the following words: "Warner throws water from his hydrant with his hose on the roof of my house every morning at 4 o'clock."

The seventh count avers that defendant spoke of plaintiff as using the water of the Los Angeles City Water Company without their consent, and that Graze said, "and I will report him and have him arrested."

The eighth count avers the use by defendant of these words: "Is that the heifer that threw the old man down; 'twas a pity she did not kill the old fool."

The ninth count quotes the following alleged defamatory words: "The old fool is keeping a nuisance here, with his cows and calves, and unless he abates it there will be trouble about it."

The tenth allegation reads as follows: "And plaintiff further alleges that he is an aged, infirm man of about 70 years of age, who recently came to California that he might pass the remainder of his days in quiet repose, inhaling those lifegiving and invigorating balmy zephyrs of this exhilarating climate, and that here on Martin street he purchased him a quiet little nook surrounded by orange trees, jessamines and roses, where he hoped to pass the remainder of his declining years in that peace and repose usually allotted and allowed to the humble and quiet citizen of seventy summers; and plaintiff further alleges that the defendant is a vigorous but vicious young man of about 30 years of age, whose sole delight seems to be to worry and annoy this plaintiff in the quiet enjoyment of his honest and hard-earned home."

The plaintiff asks $4,500 damages and that defendant may be enjoined from further molesting or annoying him.

It is needless to say that the attorney for the plaintiff is no less a person than Colonel Mike Whaling, of the Eighth ward, and of the School Board. The fervent and poetic pleading of the complaint marks the effusion as one of "Whaling's own." This is destined to be one of the most notable of the cause celebre ever tried in this county.

THE CABLE EXTENSIONS.

Two New Ropes were Dropped Into the Slot Yesterday.

Two important additions were made to the cable system yesterday. There were no banquets or public ceremonies, but the city makes a considerable gain just the same. The cable was put in for the Boyle Heights extension out First street to the cemetery. Cars will begin to run over this line by the end of the week.

The Downey avenue extension from the power house in East Los Angeles to Prichard street was also supplied with a cable yesterday. The machinery is all in order, but cars cannot be run on this line until the San Fernando street viaduct is finished. Several spans of this are already up, and the work is progressing well. In about a month more the city of Los Angeles will have one of the finest and most complete cable systems in the United States.

TWO PEOPLE INJURED.

A Horse Dashes into a Buggy on Hill Street.

About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon a serious accident occurred at the junction of Hill and Ninth streets, which resulted in two people being severely injured. From the account given by an eye-witness to the affair it appears that Mr. Guy Barham was driving in a buggy along Hill street, accompanied by his bride of but three days standing, when two horsemen came in sight at the crossing of Ninth street, apparently racing against each other. They proved to be Mr. Baker, of the Hollenbeck hotel, and Mr. C. E. Hickman, of the Natatorium. As they approached the buggy, the horse ridden by Hickman became unmanageable and swerving, dashed into the vehicle, hurling its occupants to the ground and smashing it to splinters. The animal then fell back upon its rider, crushing him in the fall. He was picked up unconscious and bleeding from an ugly wound on the left side of the head, and conveyed to the Police Station by a Mr. Woodhall in his buggy. Dr. McGowan was called in to attend to the injured man, and at his suggestion Mr. Hickman was removed to St. Paul's Hospital, where, at a late hour last night, he was reported to be still in a comatose condition. In the meantime others of those who saw the accident were engaged in attending to Mr. and Mrs. Barham, the latter of whom was found to have received internal injuries. Her husband was more fortunate, escaping with but a few scratches, and he at once procured a carriage for the conveyance of his wife to their home.

A SMART LAWYER.

He Gives Pointers to the Ontario Youth.

About a week ago a lady from the East on the way to Los Angeles via the Southern Pacific road, lost her hand bag from the Pullman car. It contained her railroad and sleeper tickets, and she was put to considerable annoyance by the loss. It disappeared some place this side of Cabazon, the lady did not know just where. A few days ago word was received at the general offices that the hand bag had been found, and was in the possession of a boy living at Ontario. Mr. Muir wrote down and asked that it be sent up immediately. The answer came that the boy, acting under the instructions of an Ontario lawyer, whose name was given, would not give up the bag until he received a suitable reward. Mr. Muir was rather aghast at this exhibition of Ontario thrift, and the next time that lawyer tries to ride on a Southern Pacific train, orders will be sent to the peanut butcher to do him up in some way.

Infernal Revenue Laws.

EDITORS HERALD—It is gratifying to observe public opinion at length manifesting itself in opposition to the internal revenue system, as per recent publicans in your paper.

There never was a more complete and effectual plan inaugurated to make rascals and cut-throats than the internal revenue laws. Murder and all kinds of villainy have been its concomitants from the first day the system went into operation. The country was immediately overrun with Government spies and detectives, whose income depended more or less upon their meanness. They sneak around business places, probe into private affairs and go into our kitchens with stomach pumps to see if the cook has not swallowed or used oleomargarine, frequently dragging innocent people from their avocations to prison. If the doctrine of "total depravity" needed verification, I think this class of Government agents would afford sufficient evidence. If they are decent men when appointed, they must of necessity fall into crooked ways or they will be "fired" by the Commissioner as inefficient detectives.

The Government in this pusillanimous system offers bribes and temptations to its officers that few men withstand. The Government seems to assume that the people are imbeciles and minors, and need the great Government of sixty millions of people to act as a guardian. Absoluteism would be preferable to this feature of the Government, with its army of tyrannical spies infesting the entire country.

Thousands, if not millions, of wealth every year rots in the orchards because the Government inhibits the distillation of fruits. The tobacco grower is more or less embarrassed from the time he plants the seed till he sells his crop, for fear of offending a Government spy and being thrown into prison on his arbitrary ipse dixit. No matter what your business may be, you must conciliate the Government "pet" if your association is at all dependent on the revenue laws. It is a most degrading, shameful arrangement, and too contemptible for a great Government like ours.

The party that will relegate the entire revenue system to its home in perdition, will be the most popular party in the country. Y.

Amusements.

The Stowaway is drawing very good houses in the balcony and gallery, but rather meagre ones in the dress circle and parquet. The upper hundreds of the theatre find in the realism and pronounced sensations of the piece, the food they crave, and they go wild in their enjoyment of the feast. It runs all the week.

For the first half of next week, with a Wednesday matinee, Murray and Murphy are to be the attraction. Irish comedy is their line, and they are good in it.

A New Mansion on Bunker Hill.

Mr. J. S. Noble, Division Superintendent of the Southern Pacific Company at Tucson, is in the city on a brief visit to his family, who spend most of the year here or at San Pedro. Mr. Noble is putting up a very fine residence on Bunker Hill avenue a short distance south of Second street. The site is a very fine one, affording a charming view of the valley as far as the ocean at Santa Monica and San Pedro, and of the hills all around the valley. The framework of the building is now up, and the work of enclosing is in progress.

Improvements in Boyle Heights.

W. H. Workman is extending Louisiana street, through his beautiful park, which is known as the Workman Park, at his own expense. The street, which will be 82½ feet wide and 1800 feet long, will run from Boyle avenue to Chicago street. This will be much appreciated by people in the vicinity, and when completed will do much to improve the beautiful drives of the park.

The Receiver's Movements.

The day before yesterday W. T. Spilman, receiver for the Los Angeles and Pacific railroad, left here hurriedly for San Francisco. He will be back about the end of the week. He is suspected of being up in the Bay City on some occult business in connection with the road.

To Collect Labor Statistics.

Hon. J. J. Tobin, of San Francisco, Commissioner of the Labor Bureau of the State, has appointed W. L. Wolfe, of this city, as his deputy to collect labor statistics and matters of a kindred nature and interest in this end of the State. Mr. Wolfe is in the City Engineer's office.

The Olive Heights' Bridge.

The Board of Supervisors made a trip to the Santa Ana river at Olive Heights, east of Anaheim, yesterday, to inspect the new bridge just put in there. The officials found the bridge a very fine one; but they complain of the terrific "Santa Ana" wind that was blowing great guns down the Santa Ana cañon.

Annual Convention of the Southern Division.

ELECTION OF SUPERINTENDENTS

The Programme Rendered Last Evening and the Business for Today's Sessions.

Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock the Seventh Annual Convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Southern California was opened at the Temperance Temple in executive session, which lasted until 5 o'clock p. m. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Sophia A. Keys, President of the association, who commenced the proceedings by reading the twenty-third Psalm. Mrs. H. A. Higgins, of Santa Barbara, followed with a short prayer, after which Mrs. Lizzie H. Mills, the Recording Secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting.

On motion, it was resolved that Mrs. Mary C. Lord, of Pasadena, the editress of The White Ribbon, the official organ of the Union, be made a member of the Press Association.

The following ladies were elected as superintendents of departments: Young Woman's Work, Miss F. Dunham, Los Angeles; Juvenile Work, Mrs. Ida Russell, Riverside; Work Among Foreigners, Mrs. S. C. W. Bowen, Pomona; Work Among Indians, Mrs. M. E. Fowler, San Jacinto; Health and Heredity, Mrs. M. E. Backus, Verdugo; Scientific Instruction, Mrs. Ida Blochman, Santa Maria; Temperance Literature, Mrs. L. H. Warren, Los Angeles; Press Work, Mrs. S. E. A. Higgins, Santa Barbara; Suppression of Impure Literature, Mrs. M. J. Bond, Santa Barbara; Relation of Temperance to Labor, Mrs. A. Huffman, Saticoy; Narcotics, Mrs. M. C. Lord, Pasadena; Grape Culture, Mrs. Curtis, The Palms; Non-Alcohols in Medicine, Mrs. D. Whipple, Pasadena; Parliamentary Usages, Mrs. E. J. Davis, Riverside; Evangelistic Department, Mrs. A. T. Armour, Los Angeles; Prisons and Police Station, Mrs. M. S. Dimmick, Los Angeles; Flower Mission, Miss A. L. Sudduth, Colton; Work Among Soldiers, Mrs. E. C. Ransom, Los Angeles; Work Among Sailors, Mrs. D. H. Gillam, San Diego; Sacramental Wines, Mrs. Marcellus Bixby, Los Angeles; Department of White Cross and Shield, Mrs. Dr. Hall, Riverside; Sabbath Observance, Mrs. E. M. Crow, Los Angeles; Parlor Meetings, Mrs. J. J. Hewitt, Riverside; State and County Fairs, Mrs. M. A. Ashley, Santa Barbara; Legislature and Petitions, Mrs. A. Clippinger, Tropico; Franchise, Miss Herriman, University; Peace and International Arbitration, Mrs. F. E. Baright, Long Beach; Railroad Rates, Mrs. L. D. More, Los Angeles.

A number of matters pertaining to the society, among which was the question of the advisability of paying salaries to the officers of the Union, were brought up for discussion, but as the meeting was executive, full particulars could not be ascertained.

In the evening the Reception Committee was busily engaged in welcoming the visiting delegates, who came in from all directions. At 8 o'clock a general adjournment was taken to the large concert hall of the building, where the following programme was rendered: Music—Piano solo, selected, Mrs. L. L. Taggart; devotional exercises, Mrs. N. P. J. Button, State Vice-President, prayer; vocal solo, selected, Mrs. T. B. Brown; Addresses of Welcome by the Presidents of Los Angeles Unions; Responses by Presidents of County Unions of Southern California; music, guitar solo, selected, Mrs. Clarence A. Warren; recitations, selected, Miss Rose Elizabeth Ashmead; vocal solo, selected, Mrs. J. B. Brown.

The programme arranged for today is as follows: 9 a. m., Call to Order by the President, Mrs. Sophia A. Keyes; Consecration Service, Mrs. Anna T. Armour; 9:45, Organization; 10:15, President's Address; 10:25, report of Committee on Credentials; 10:30, minutes of Executive Committee, Mrs. Lizzie H. Mills; 10:45, report of Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Mary E. Garbutt; 11, report of Treasurer, Mrs. Anna T. Armour; 11:15, report of County Presidents: 1, San Bernardino, Mrs. George Button; 2, San Luis Obispo, Mrs. Thomas Stalker; 3, Ventura, Miss P. J. Mayhew; 4, Santa Barbara, Mrs. S. E. Higgins; 11:45, miscellaneous business; 12, noontide prayer; adjournment; 2 p. m., devotional exercises, Mrs. M. M. Brown, Superintendent of Evangelistic Department; 2:30, minutes of previous session; 2:35, reports of County Presidents concluded: 5, San Diego, Mrs. S. Whitmore; 6, Los Angeles, Mrs. Emma Cash; 3:05, report of Board of Trustees; 3:15, miscellaneous business; 3:30, reports of department work; 1, "State and County Fairs," Mrs. Mary A. Ashley; 2, "Sacramental Wine," Mrs. Marcellus Bixby; 3, "Work Among Soldiers," Mrs. Eleanor C. Rawson; 4, "Work Among Railroad Employees," Mrs. R. C. Richardson; 5, "Work Among Foreigners and Col

IN THE FAIR.

A Detailed Account of the Exhibits.

LOS ANGELES COUNTY PRODUCTS.

Exhibits from Other Counties—Special Mention of Displays—The Crowd Last Night.

There was a moderately good attendance yesterday at the Fair during the day, and in the evening a very good crowd filled the building. The exhibits are now all in place, and the public will find everything in good order. From this time on the Fair should be well patronized. Its merits as an exposition of the produce and manufactures of this section of the State cannot be questioned and they deserve recognition on the part of the public.

Yesterday evening the Seventh Regiment band was again in attendance, and rendered a good programme of popular music. The pianos on the stage were generally in use when the band was not playing, and it is a noticeable fact that the acoustic properties of the Pavilion are such that the sound of a piano can be heard to the farthest corner.

Among the visitors were noted the faces of a great many prominent people. There was a very large percentage of young people, and among these a great many pretty girls. The seats around the gallery are a very popular place of resort for those who wish to look down and watch the crowd below and listen to the music. As all parts of the building are brilliantly illuminated, the sight is a very attractive one.

The Directors express themselves as tolerably well satisfied with the outlook, although the attendance thus far is not quite up to what they hope for later on. The refreshments are served in the basement by the ladies of the Orphans' Home. The room is tastefully arranged, and the ice cream and cake is of a superior order. This department of the Fair is certainly deserving of very liberal patronage.

The most satisfactory way to give an account of the exhibits is to suppose the visitor to begin near the Secretary's desk, and wander around the building taking in parallel aisles as he comes to them.

Beginning at the southwest corner of the Pavilion, the first exhibit to be noticed is a small showcase filled with elegantly prepared pressed meats from the Norma market of M. T. Ryan & Co. Back of this along the wall is arranged an exhibit of road carts, gigs and buggies from the establishment of Newell Matthews. Hawley, King & Co. come next, with buggies, delivery wagons and phaetons—an excellent display.

The Pacific Clay Manufacturing Company, of South Riverside, has the stall next to the door leading into the annex. They have a good display of vitrified pipe, building blocks, chimney pieces and ollas, together with some artistic work in clay.

Going out into the annex the average visitor's interest in electrical apparatus will probably cause him to look first at the Thompson-Houston electric plant, which furnishes light and heat to the building. It is supplied by the Rhodes & Keese Co., of this city. The engine is contributed by E. K. Green and the dynamo is owned by the Redondo Beach Company, but was loaned to the Agricultural Association by Captain Ainsworth for this occasion. The arc lamps throughout the building burn with a steady and clear light. The directors of the fair thought that the public would be interested in seeing electricity generated, and patronized this company. For some reason the Los Angeles Electric Light Company refused to allow their lamps, which are already in the building, to be used.

Another prominent exhibit in the annex is that of H. P. Gregory & Co., by P. R. Keith, agent. There is a very neat little Otto gas engine, a Taylor 15-horse power engine, some Blake steam pumps, Webber centrifugal pumps, Sturtevant blowers, emery grinders, an Atlas engine and boiler, Gilbert wood-split pulleys, Payne's engine and boiler and Jackson vault lights. It is a very complete and an interesting display. The Otto engine is in active operation and attracts many visitors.

Vandoren & Schmidt have an exhibit in this part of the building which speaks well for a new industry of this city. It is a handsome display of sandstone from the Van Keith quarries in East Los Angeles. All this stone is taken out inside of the city limits. It is hard and fine and works up neatly. There is undoubtedly a future ahead for it.

Among other exhibits in this annex may be mentioned: The windmills, of which E. K. Green and W. T. Edwards are the agents; a unique folding bath tub, of which C. R. Baxter is agent; a display by H. Giese of mowers reapers, plows, harrows and wagons; steam pumps by the Pacific Manufacturing Company and the Star windmill of the Los Angeles Windmill Company. Hawley, King & Co. have here a large exhibit of agricultural implements, incubators, plows and farm wagons. The Fosmir Iron Works of this city have an exhibit of iron posts, plows, iron fences and agricultural implements. Here there are also some good samples of the work of the Los Angeles Pressed Brick and Terra Cotta Company, and a patent buckboard manufactured in Napa.

The annex contains a small exhibit of what ought to be one of the best products of the county, viz.: chickens The Los Angeles poultry ranch has half a dozen coops, and W. W. Thurston has a good display. Little Willie Workman, one of Al Workman's sons, has some white rabbits here, which he watches zealously.

Coming back into the main building, the first booth on the way toward the stage is that of the Davis Sewing Machine, where a quantity of beautiful embroidery and fine efching done with the appliances of that machine is on exhibition. Next to this is the stand of the Fairbanks scales, where the exact weight is taken sans expense. The Hall typewriter is in this exhibit. Then comes Booty & Holmes, who display the Wilson patent shutters and blinds and Z. H. Weller with an elegant display of stoves and miscellaneous hardware.

At the western corner of the stage is the exhibit of C. Kaufman, of Ranchita products. They are well selected and neatly displayed. Passing down the main western aisle the visitor comes next to the large and handsome exhibit of dairy apparatus of G. G. Wickson & Co. There is a big barrel churn, some feed cutters, roller workers, etc. The same people exhibit the Remington typewriter.

The large exhibit of sun-dried fruit by W. R. Baker, in the aisle, is one of the most attractive displays of Los Angeles products in the Fair. The process is an inexpensive one and very successful in its results. In the same locality Gregor McDonald exhibits the Universal screen and P. H. Matthews has a handsome booth devoted to the Sherwin Williams prepared paint.

Near the entrance door are two fine displays of flour by the local rival mills, the Los Angeles Flour and Milling Company and the Capitol Mills. The latter have a neat pyramid of sacks of flour and a display of bread from L. Ebinger, the baker. A lady cook is at work in this booth making fresh biscuits and bread, which are given away to the visitors. The Los Angeles Flouring and Milling Company has a magnificent pyramid, twenty feet high, and exhibits samples showing the processes of the making of flour.

Through the center of the building are scattered a number of tables, on which fruit and produce are exhibited. The Sespe Land and Water Company has a fine exhibit of grapes and corn. The Ventura display is especially attractive, containing sweet potatoes, corn, onions, apples, pears, quinces, beans, walnuts and dried fruits. There are also some handsome blocks of asphalt. Among the exhibitors from this county are Messrs. Hassheider, B. F. Chadse, Alex Grey, L. Walker, J. B. Aloord, M. B. Smith and S. R. Thorpe. The exhibit is one which does great credit to Ventura county, and looms up prominently among all the others.

Although San Diego is not a part of this district, it is well represented in the Fair. Its exhibits occupy a prominent place near the stage. They are of complete scope, and admirable in character. A full list of all the articles in this exhibit, together with the name of the producer, will appear later in these columns. San Diego people have reason to feel very well satisfied with the showing which the products of their county make, when placed in comparison with those of other parts of the southern section of the State.

W. Newport & Co., of San Diego, have a separate exhibit of cereals arranged in handsome style.

Cucamunga has a fine display of nuts, peaches, grapes, pears, plums, dried fruits and wines. The Lankershim ranch has a good exhibit of products grown without irrigation, vegetables of immense size, fruits, peanuts, etc. Right among these fruit displays is the large fountain filled with plants and water lilies, contributed by the Germain Fruit Company. There are seats around this place, and in the evenings when the band plays it is a favorite place of resort.

The Alhambra exhibit of fruit is one of the best in the fair. There are guavas, grapes, peaches, pears, plums, figs, dried fruits, pomegranates of enormous size and flowers and plants. Considerable skill has been exercised in the arrangement of this table, and the display deserves special mention.

S. McKinley, of Vernon, has a table on which fruits of fine size and luscious quality are displayed, telling a tale of the good of irrigation.

The Santa Barbara display includes a fine exhibit of olive oil from the presses of Elwood Cooper. There are also lemons, persimmons, immense apples, peaches, pears, and many other varieties of fruit, all of superior quality. There is also a large sample of pure gypsum.

The Westminster and Downey displays maintain the fine reputation which those sections have always enjoyed. The Westminster onions and potatoes are simply colossal. There are some fine ripe quinces and guavas from Cahuenga, and Pomona covers a table with a splendid display of sweet potatoes, onions and produce, and fruits of all kinds. Many of these exhibits are from the Chino ranch. There are also some delicious crystallized fruits from C. F. Loop of Pomona.

Near the stage, Mr. Lichtenberger has a good display of big pumpkins and of corn, all grown on land from which a crop of barley had already been reaped. D. Edson Smith has some very large watermelons.

A very conspicuous exhibit near the entrance door is that of several banana trees from the place of O. E. Roberts, together with samples of the fruit. George T. Hanley's Good Luck baking powder, of local manufacture, occupies a booth in this vicinity, and L. E. Mercer & Sons make a fine display of bee-keeper's supplies, and show the bees at work. W. W. Bliss of Duarte has also an elegant exhibit of the same character. C. & L. Garnier have a good display of Merino wool near the center of the building.

Just under the center of the stage is the elegantly arranged booth of the HERALD, from which a large number of copies of the ILLUSTRATED HERALD—the best periodical of its sort ever issued in Southern California—are sold daily. Near at hand the Evening Express has a neat, well furnished booth.

Upon the stage there are several pianos, which are exhibited by J. W. Gardner & Co. In the northeast corner of the Pavilion there are some carts from the Electric Carriage Works, and a large and elegant display of carriages, carts, wagons, agricultural implements, etc., by S. W. Luitweiler. Along the eastern aisle one finds a good display of oil-stoves from the establishment of Cass Bros., an elegant display of paper from Cooke & Co., an attractive exhibit of tents and tent material from Wm. Hoegee, and some fine-looking bottled goods of the Philadelphia Brewery.

In this vicinity W. B. Nesbit has a booth where he displays his poultry powder, his patent incubator and his poultry journal. W. C. Furrey has a good display of bath-tubs, sinks and other plumbing articles. Mrs. R. P. Ingram has a good display of jellies. Villigen Bros. & Co., of Covina, show four Washington navel orange trees, six months from bud and nine feet in height, and Leason & Bigelow, of Linwood, have a good display of butter.

The exhibit of Howry Bros. of groceries, tea, spices, etc., is a very prominent feature of this part of the Fair. This is the only firm in the city that grind and put up their own spices. Their display is neatly arranged and shows enterprise on the part of the firm.

In the southeastern corner is a booth in which the Rural Californian and the Pacific Poultry World may be found at home. These are both journals of high character and it is appropriate at a fair of this character that they should occupy a prominent position. The Petaluma incubator is also exhibited in this booth, and C. M. Wilson the proprietor of a large apiary, near San Fernando, has a very attractive exhibit of bees at work, honey and bee-keeping apparatus. The latter are the manufacture of A. D. Root, of Medina, Ohio. It is a very pleasant booth to stroll into.

The two art rooms at the front of the building contain many interesting exhibits. They will be described hereafter in the HERALD.

A large number of the best and most interesting exhibits will be found up stairs, as every inch of the large gallery is taken up. The two rival gas companies, the Los Angeles and the Lowe, are here placed side by side with one another, and each has an elegant display, consisting of stoves and heaters of all descriptions and all kinds of gas apparatus. J. W. Frey has a fine display of stained glass, wood work and fire places. The Los Angeles Mantel Company is just moving in. The Woman's Exchange has an elegant display of work. The Los Angeles Sodawater Works have an exhibit of bottled goods. The Yost typewriter may be here seen and tested. August Wagniere has an interesting display of bicycles and electrical instruments. Here also the Rhodes & Keese Company have an additional exhibit of apparatus.

One of the best exhibits in the gallery is that of Henry Bohrmann, a local manufacturer and dealer in mantels and fine wood work. Here one may see samples of his carving, and of the mantels which he builds. As his work is local, it would deserve special mention on that account, whereas it deserves that it should be noticed for its intrinsic merit.

Chapman & Paul have a good display of gas and gasoline stoves.

The W. C. T. U. have a neatly arranged booth. The Gold Dust washing powder makes a good display. The Los Angeles Glove Manufactory exhibits some good local work. W. F. McBarney has a fine display of harness, as has also W. M. Osborne. In this same section of the gallery is the display of the Curled Hair Manufactory, the Kramer patent roof walker, and some pampas plumes exhibited by J. M. Stewart. A. E. Nelligan shows a patent self-wringing mop.

G. Spiker has in the gallery an interesting exhibit of tobacco grown in this city, part of which is made up into cigars.

At the end of the gallery over the entrance there is a large department devoted to women's work. It contains a large variety of elegant exhibits, which will be noticed later as a special feature of the Fair. In this room one may see the lady-bug—the Vedolia Cardinalis—hard at work destroying scales.

THE WHISKEY RING.

Its Running of the Internal Revenue Bureau to Crush the Wine Industry—A Strong Protest from the Chamber of Commerce.

The Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce met yesterday to act upon the report of the committee appointed to consider the letter of General Vandever relating to the treatment of the wine interest of California by the Internal Revenue Bureau. The following proceedings were had:

On the 19th day of September, A. D. 1889, Hon. J. De Barth Shorb presented to the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce the following letter from General Vandever, written in answer to one from Mr. Shorb:

REPRESENTATIVE VANDEVER'S LETTER.

J. De Barth Shorb, Esq., Ramona, Cal.:

DEAR SIR—Your communication of the 10th inst. is before me.

I appreciate all that you say, and will gladly lend what aid I can for the correction of the wrongs of which you complain.

The Whiskey Ring seem to have things their own way. I can see of no more effectual method of suppressing them than by a repeal of the internal revenue laws, and the suppression of the Internal Revenue Bureau.

The persons recently appointed guagers, etc., in this district, are the selections of the Bureau, made without advice of, or consultation with the Representative. I do not know that I should complain, however, for it is hard telling who to trust in that line of business, and I do not care to share in the responsibility of that kind of appointments. The Whiskey Ring send their grain-distilled spirits abroad free from the internal revenue tax of ninety cents per gallon, to be returned in spurious wine for American consumption in competition with the genuine product of the American grown grape.

The Whiskey Ring, running the Internal Revenue Bureau in its own interest, takes precious good care to have only such agents appointed as protect their monopoly of furnishing free spirit for foreign concoctions, while the American producer of genuine grape wine is obliged to pay ninety cents per gallon for grape spirit with which he fortifies his product.

The iniquities of the internal revenue system can only be prevented by extinguishing it entirely.

As the law now stands, the Government encourages the production of villainous compounds by the imposition of a tax of ninety cents a gallon on an honest article. Yours truly,

WM. VANDEVER.

Ventura, Cal., September 12th, 1889.

The board referred the subjects touched on, to the following committee: W. H. Workman, Hon. J. De Barth Shorb, Colonel J. J Ayers, Judge John Haynes, Major E. W. Jones and J. B. Lankershim, who after mature consideration presented the following preamble and resolutions to the board at their meeting yesterday:

WHEREAS, The grape interest has, under wise and fostering laws, grown to be of great national importance to all countries whose climatic conditions permit the culture of the vine and manufacture of wines;

AND WHEREAS, It has produced more than other agricultural pursuits, a happy and conservative people, whose cheerful looking homes are evidence of contentment and peace within;

AND WHEREAS, The labor of the vigneron results in the building up of properties and establishment of homes that are not of today but grow in value by time, thereby adding the element of permanency to a nation's prosperity;

AND WHEREAS, The conditions distinguishing this industry render the burdens of life labor less onerous and a competency easier of attainment, thereby making the country life more attractive, and tending to arrest the dangerous crowding of cities and the necessary increase of the hoodlum or pauper element;

AND WHEREAS, The equality before the law which attaches to persons under our free republican institutions, should have its counterpart in the equality of the burden of taxation upon the material interests of the country;

AND WHEREAS, The internal revenue laws do now discriminate, as they always have, against the grape interest, inasmuch as the same tax is levied on grape and other fruit brandies as upon corn or wheat spirits, or whiskey;

AND WHEREAS, The relative production in spirits from corn and wheat, and grapes and other fruits, is as three is to one, that is one hundred weight of corn and wheat will yield from six to six and a half gallons of spirits ready for the market as soon as produced, while one hundred weight of grapes will yield but two gallons, which must be carried for years before it can be profitably sold;

AND WHEREAS, The products of the grain farmers are practically imperishable, and their legitimate use is to give bread to the toiling millions;

AND WHEREAS, The system of grain-farming each year impoverishes the soil, and each year the acreage grows less, the permanency of values being thereby destroyed;

AND WHEREAS, California can and is producing wines and brandies of high quality, fast pressing upon France's best productions, and commencing to receive that recognition abroad;

AND WHEREAS, Wise and fostering laws, and their equal and just administration, will result in building up California's wine productions to a great National importance, possibly equaling, before the close of the century, France's maximum production of 1874, viz: 2,600,000,000 gallons.

AND WHEREAS, The letter of General Vandever, member of Congress from the Sixth Congressional District of California, to Hon. J. DeBarth Shorb, and printed in the Los Angeles HERALD of September 18, 1889, [and appended to this report], shows that a trust, composed of whiskey and spirit manufacturers of the East, and known generally as the "Whiskey Ring," have by their own peculiar methods apparently dominated the administration of the Bureau of Internal Revenue and named nearly all the appointees of said bureau, in order that their monopoly might be maintained, and that all interests in conflict or competition therewith might be crushed.

AND WHEREAS, The success of the California wine interest means the exclusion of the adulterated foreign concoctions and the cutting off of the foreign buyers and adulterators from the purchase of spirits, the product of the Whiskey Ring.

AND WHEREAS, The said Ring has of late grown more potential in power in ordering and directing the Bureau of Internal Revenue and its officers, causing said officers to inaugurate a war of extermination against the wine men of this State,

AND WHEREAS, The instinct of freedom, still pervading the American people, revolts against unnecessary and persistent interference with their avocations by the Federal Government, and more particularly against domiciliary visits by day and night of hired spies of said Bureau to detect some technical violation of an incomprehensible and unjust law, or of the regulations of said Bureau, which are constantly being changed at the dictation of the Whiskey Ring agents and which are made unconstitutionally the law of the land;

AND WHEREAS, The recent letter of our Representative, Hon. Wm. Vandever, on this subject, has set forth the iniquities of said Bureau and its autocratic misuse of power, giving to this subject a National significance;

AND WHEREAS, The sub-agents of the Bureau are not supposed to act except under instructions from their chiefs, who are therefore directly responsible for the state of affairs now crushing to death our vineyard interests; therefore,

Be it Resolved by this Chamber, That our Representatives in the United States Senate and Congress, as guardians of the interests of their State in and out of Congress, be requested forthwith to demand from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and the present Administration that the internal revenue officers of this State be ordered to discontinue forthwith their acts of hostility and repression against the wine interest of California, or to cause their instant removal.

And, Further Resolved, That other Chambers and Boards of Trade throughout the State be requested to adopt similar resolutions;

And, Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of this Chamber and a copy of the same be sent to the President and his Cabinet officers, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and all our Representatives and those of other States and Territories, and to all trade and industrial bodies throughout the country.

The board adopted the resolutions and instructed the Secretary to carry out the provisions therein at once.

European Nations Fearful of Losing Trade.

HYSTERICAL PRESS COMMENT.

The Coming Congress of American Nations Viewed with Alarm. Delegates Arriving.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

NEW YORK, September 24.—A special from Washington says: The State Department is receiving just now from our representatives in Europe, a great many interesting extracts from European journals expressing alarm over the effect upon European trade of the coming conference of American nations. Some of them are almost hysterical in their appeals to the South American republics to distrust our advances and continue to trade in Europe.

Le Temps, of Paris, has been publishing a series of articles expressing the gravest fears as to the consequences of the Congress. The paper urges English and French merchants to make every effort to induce the Hispano-Americas to adhere to their ancient systems.

La Epoca, of Madrid, also has been publishing vigorous comments on the Congress.

AN ALARM FROM VIENNA.

One of the latest communications received at the State Department is from Minister Grant, dated August 8, 1889. It is a long article from the Vienna Fremdenblatt, the organ of the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Austria. It says: "The United States Government has invited all the Governments of the New World to take part in a Congress to be held in Washington under the watchword of 'United America,' and especially America united against Europe. Uniform weights, measures and coinage are to be introduced. A Court of Arbitration is to be appointed to settle disputes between American States. The encroachment of European States in connection with American affairs is to be jointly opposed, and the most important of all, a uniform tariff rate of customs duties is to be established. If these ports should be closed to us by tariff rates as high as those of the United States, a large part of our workmen, and a still larger part of the German, French and English laboring men would be in danger of losing their employment. It would be a serious loss to Europe if the politicians of Washington should succeed in uniting the whole American continent, not in a single free territory, but in a territory surrounded by insurmountable customs barriers."

SOME SINISTER ADVICE.

The Vienna paper goes on to say that the States to the south of the United States are not likely to submit to the wishes of the millionaires of the Union. It follows up this statement by giving them advice as to where they should sell their raw material and buy their finished products, and urges them not to attempt to change their present European trade routes for fear the Americans will take undue advantage of them.

The comments of the papers in the three principal capitals of Europe are not the only ones that could be quoted, but they are enough to show that the mercial interests of Europe are waking up to the importance of this Congress and are attempting by all means, fair and unfair, to prejudice it throughout all the European countries.

ARRIVAL OF THE DELEGATES ARRIVED.

NEW YORK, September 24.—A distinguished lot of visitors to this country arrived at this port early this morning on the City of Paris, being delegates to the coming International Congress from various Spanish-American countries. The arrivals are: Junto Castellanos, delegate from San Salvadore; Dr. Joaquin Arrieta Rossi, attache, Samuel Valdieosa, Secretary, and Senor Juan Francisco Velarde, delegate, from Bolivia; Alcibiades Velarde and Mariano Velarde, attaches, and Geronimo Selaga, delegate, from Honduras, and E. G. Fiallos, Secretary, and ex-Minister Roberts, from Chili, and Julio M. Foster, of Santiago, Chili.

In reference to the coming Congress, Senor Selaga, delegate from Honduras, said: "Our people are very enthusiastic over this International Congress, and expect many advantageous results from it. We wish to develop our mining and agricultural interests, but our mines are what we want seen in operation as soon as possible. We need railroads and enlargement of our commerce with foreign countries, especially the United States. All classes of our country desire closer relations with your people."

THE CRONIN MYSTERY.

More Gossip About Suspect Hefferman, Alias Bergen.

CHICAGO, September 24.—The story in one of the morning papers regarding William Bergen, who is said to have handled funds in connection with the Cronin murder, is a verp old one, at least so Police Captain Schuttler says. He added: "There was a time when we thought an investigation of the clue would be of great importance to us, but that idea has long since been exploded. The only persons who still believe in the clue are a few Irishmen who think they know all about the affair. And you could not drive any other idea into their heads with a cast-iron bar. They persist in thinking this man had a great deal to do with the murder."

"The story says there is no longer any doubt as to who was with Burke and Woodruff the night Cronin was killed. Is that true?"

"No, it is not true. There is a great deal of doubt; in fact it is all doubt."

MORE ABOUT THE BERGEN STORY.

CHICAGO, September 24.—The Evening Journal, referring to the statement that the police are after a man named Bergen, says: The man William Bergen, whom it is said the police want very badly just now, was "located" long ago and his movements are well known to the authorities here. There is no mystery at all as to the man's real name. It is none other than J. J. Heffernan, the young California suspect, whose alleged connection with the Cronin case was first made public last Saturday. The real mystery is not the man and what the police are working hard just at present to ascertain, is what part, if any, he took in the murder or conspiracy which brought it about. It is known that Heffernan was here with Tom Desmond long before the disappearance of Dr. Cronin, that he remained here until after that event, but whether he rode in the wagon that contained the trunk, to the water, on the night of the murder, indeed whether he ever put foot inside the Carlson cottage at all is not known, and all statements to the contrary are false.

ONE REASON TO SUSPECT HIM

There is one reason, however, for belief that Hefferman was the man who drove Dr. Cronin away from the Conklin residence, and it is on that the police are working. That Bergen was one of the man's aliases while staying in Chicago, is known beyond all doubt, and it is said, on good authority, that the State has several witnesses who can prove that Heffernan was introduced in two or three Camps by Dan Coughlin under that name. Heffernan is said to be a blacksmith, but this statement is not confirmed. The police and State's Attorney claim to know just what his trade or business is, but will not tell.

PRIVATE DETECTIVES SHADOWING HIM.

The running down of all the clues concerning this man, as well as the shadowing of him at his home in Oakland, Cal., it is claimed, is in the hands of a private detective agency, whose operators are just now keeping close tab on his movements. There is every reason to believe that as soon as the State has investigated the case a little further, and satisfactory identification is obtained from those who saw him while here with Tom Desmond, he will be arrested and brought on to Chicago. There is no fear that Heffernan will take his departure for parts unknown, for the surveillance under which he is at present will not cease till he is finally placed under arrest or his innocence is conclusively shown.

NO NEW JURORS.

CHICAGO, September 24.—No new jurors were secured in the Cronin case today.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE.

Kansas Towns Air Their Grievances Before the Commission.

KANSAS CITY, September 24.—The Interstate Commission began its sessions in this city today. The first case was against the Rock Island road for refusing to stop trains at Lawrence, Kansas. That company showed that it was not allowed to stop there by the terms of its contract with the Union Pacific, over whose tracks it passes through Lawrence. Decision was reserved.

The next case was against the Texas Pacific and Missouri, Kansas and Texas, for discriminating in freights against Humboldt, Kansas. The roads showed that these discriminations were removed. Decision was reserved.

The cases of most general interest were those of the merchants of Humboldt, Kansas, against the Southern Pacific, Texas Pacific, Central Pacific, Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, Missouri, Kansas and Texas, and Atlantic and Pacific roads. The complaint charges that the railroads discriminate in freight rates against them in favor of Missouri river points. The charge specifically states that the rate on sugar, car lots, from San Francisco to Kansas City, is 65 cents per hundred, while to Humboldt, 117 miles nearer San Francisco, it is 85 cents per hundred. The general answer of all the roads in substance is the same. They state that the rate of 65 cents to the Missouri river points is unjust for the service, but is forced upon them by competition over the ocean; that if such rates were not made water rates to New York and other seaports and thence to Missouri river points, would be less, and would thereby injure the business of the various roads. With sugar shipped around Cape Horn to New York, thence to Missouri river points, and thence to Humboldt, Kansas, local rates west of the Missouri river would be added to the rate to New York and the Missouri river, making the rate eighty-five cents. The roads claim that was the manner of fixing the Humboldt rate, and deny any discrimination against Humboldt.

FIELD AND NEAGLE.

The Justice Denies That Neagle Travels With Him.

CHICAGO, September 24.—Justice Field of the United States Supreme Court, arrived here this morning en route from San Francisco to Washington. He went at once to the Palmer House. It was supposed Deputy United States Marshal Neagle was with him, but he was not seen to get off the train.

When asked about the Terry killing Justice Field said: "I think the tragedy will result beneficially. There will be laws passed by Congress and also by State Legislatures for the protection of Judges from the wrath of disappointed and desperate litigants. It is necessary, in order to keep justice pure, that a Judge on the bench should not be compelled to let fears of litigants' revenge change the course of his rulings."

"Do you expect any attempt at revenge to be made by Mrs. Terry?"

"One cannot tell. She is closely watched, but desperate people take desperate chances sometimes."

"Is Marshal Neagle traveling with you?"

"No, I have had no protection since leaving Tacoma."

It was ascertained, however, that Marshal Neagle traveled on the same train with Justice Field, but Justice Field said that Neagle was not of his party.

"Marshal Neagle directs his own affairs," said Justice Field, when questioned on this point. "I have nothing to do with his actions. He goes and comes as he chooses. I have no bodyguard, I assure you."

Justice Field and party left the city for the East this afternoon.

IN THE DEBTORS' PRISON.

George Francis Train Reposing Behind Prison Bars.

BOSTON, September 24.—George Francis Train was arrested at noon at the Trement House on a judgment note for $1,000 in favor of one Spiller.

Spiller belongs to Toledo, Ohio. Train says in 1872 he guaranteed $70 for John A. Sant, editor of the Toledo Sun, to buy type with. Sant told him he would not be called upon to pay the amount, and simply asked him to guarantee it. Spiller, Train says, is a pawnbrober, and he advanced some of the money. In 1876 he got judgment against Train in Toledo for $100, and four years later wanted to settle, so Train says, for $50. Train says Sant told him he had paid it all. Spiller then got judgment for $363, and now, after thirteen years, comes with the amount swollen to $1,000. When asked if he intended to pay it, Train said: "Of course not; I'll go to jail."

Train was arraigned in the Municipal Court this afternoon. He presented his own case, making a very humorous address. As he refused to take the Poor Debtor's oath or furnish bonds, he was committed to the County Jail. He accepted his fate philosophically.

HOW MANY WAYS CAN THIS BE READ?

THE LOS ANGELES HERALD IS BY ALL ACKNOWLEDGED have been the prime factor in the discovery and making known of the resources of this section. To its sagacious outgivings more than to any other agency our marvelous development is attributed.

THE HERALD has from its inception watched with a single eye the budding industries of this portion of the State. For each good enterprise this journal has at all times had a word of cheerful encouragement. In spite of the skeptical, it has survived to see all of its earlier predictions fulfilled to the letter.

THE HERALD to-day takes the lead in all respects among the papers of Southern California. Its first care still is the material, intellectual and social interests of its section. It aims to be truthful rather than over-zealous in its publication of news; to be conservative rather than over-sensational, in its policy; to be clean and decent, respecting the sacred precincts of the home and fireside, rather than indecently salacious in its tone.

THE HERALD gets all the news from all quarters of the globe with promptness accuracy and dispatch. Its local staff is energetic and well-trained to miss nothing of real importance to its readers. It is always alive to all public enterprises.

THE HERALD still takes pride in aiding any legitimate material, intellectual or social movement which will benefit the people. No other journal in this section approaches it in those important respects.

War Upon the Spy System.

The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce took prompt action yesterday upon the letter of General Vandever, in which he shows that the Internal Revenue Bureau is being used by the whiskey ring for the purpose of crushing out the wine industry of California. A series of resolutions (which we publish elsewhere) were adopted and steps taken to have the matter brought conspicuously before the country and Congress.

It is monstrous that the administration of a system of laws should be practically abandoned by a department of the Government to a ring that is interested in crushing out all industries in competition with its own. Yet this is an actual fact. It is understood that the whiskey ring of the United States, composed of a Trust which embraces all the distilleries east of the Rocky Mountains, and wielding a capital of one hundred millions of dollars, is really the power in the Internal Revenue Department. The wines of California are in competition with the ring in various ways. First, as the taste develops for wine amongst the people, the consumption of whiskey is lessened. Second, the wines of California, both from their quality and purity are driving out the imported wines of France, and the whiskey ring sells a very large percentage of its product in spirits to the French wine adulterators for the purpose of fortifying their manufactures. No tax is paid on the spirits thus exported, and the spurious wines they fortify are returned to this country to compete with the pure wines of California, which our vignerons are forbidden to fortify through the construction placed upon the law by the Internal Revenue Bureau at the dictation of the whiskey ring.

If the Revenue Bureau were not run by the whiskey ring there would be some chance for the wine-makers of California to obtain justice, but as long as the ring can make Regulations, binding upon our vignerons, through that Bureau, and secure the appointment of their myrmidons as agents and spies, it is impossible for the California wine-growers to continue in business. They are harassed night and day. A system of espionage and nocturnal visitings is kept up with a view of worrying the wine-maker into despair. The law allows the appointment of twenty-six Government agents for this whole State. That would seem to be enough, but there are over one hundred acting as such in Southern California alone. By some hocus-pocus the law is twisted so as to warrant the ring in swelling the twenty-six agents to hundreds of underlings as "specials," who are selected according to the depravity of their character. A man of infamous record, handy with his pistol, law-breaking, overbearing and full of swagger, puffed up with a consciousness of his "brief authority," and unscrupulous as to the means he employs to carry out the ends of his masters—the whiskey ring—that is the kind of fellows who represent the Internal Revenue Bureau in this State and who are filling every vigneron with dismay and disgust. They are paid out of the sack of the whiskey ring, and they well understand what power is behind them.

If so infamous a misuse of power as is permitted in the Revenue Department cannot be put an end to; if the whiskey ring is greater than the Government of the United States and can subvert its officers and the laws to its will, then it is time there was some great political upheaval. The people will not tolerate the domination of so infamous a power. The administration of a department of the Government in a manner so scandalous and tyrannic cannot stand when brought out into the full view of the public eye.

What Our City Sewage Has Done.

The people who so persistently oppose the utilization of city sewage in the fertilization of the soil, permit their prejudices to lead them into a position that would result in great injury to the well-being of communities, if they formed the majority. Before science had mastered a knowledge of the chemistry of the soils, and had demonstrated the fact that the wastage of great cities was the most valuable restorer to lands of the productive power impaired by long-continued cultivation without fertilization, the suburbs of populous centers gradually became barren wastes and blasted heaths. But when the prejudices of ignorance were overcome, and sewage was made to perform its natural function in vitalizing the impoverished soils adjacent to the great cities, their suburbs at once became seats of industry and production. It is amazing that, in the face of the experience of the principal cities of Europe in the past fifty years [illegible] treatment of their sewage, any benighted as to wish to see the drainage of this city wasted when we have thousands of acres of poor and porous lands that could be rendered rich and productive by our sewage. Nor are we without the data right here to show conclusively the benefits that our sewage has already conferred upon suburban localities that would have remained unfruitful without it. The Southern Pacific Railroad Company has established two stations just below this city that had no existence and no cause for their existence two years ago. Whatever products may have been raised by the people near them at that time were so insignificant that they were carried in teams by the farmers to the depot in this city for transportation. These stations are Winthrop and Vernondale. They are the depots of a section of country that has been raised into productive prosperity because they had the sewage of our city to irrigate and fertilize their lands. Here is a comparative table of the shipments to and from these two stations for the first six months of 1888 and 1889. It tells the whole story in a nutshell of the value of our city sewage:

It will be seen that the business done at Winthrop increased tremendously in the first six months of 1889 over that of the same period in 1888; whilst that of Vernondale is without comparison. What a crime it would be to waste a fertilizer that is proving results like the above!

LOS ANGELES is suffering at this particular time more from lack of enterprise than from any other cause. If we had as plentiful a supply of public spirit as of climate, for example, we would have a smelter for ores here in a very short time. There are, let us assume, in this city fifty people who, during the past ten years, have made fortunes of all the way from $250,000 to $500,000 each. It would take perhaps $50,000 to establish a smeltering establishment in the city. Not more than 5 per cent. of this need be put up at once. In the course of a short time as much more would be required. By the time half the total sum was paid in, the works would be in operation. The establishment would not be large, but it would give employment to fifty people, the heads of as many families. From that small start the concern would grow until it would employ several hundred men, and it would not require the putting up of any more money. The profits would do the developing, and in five years from now the owners would have a fine business, paying large dividends. This is but one of many lines of industries which might well be developed here at this time, with the happiest of results to those who might enter into them and to the community in general.

IT IS a nice question to decide whether this city belongs to the people who live in it or to the Electric Light Company. That haughty corporation has refused to furnish illumination to the Agricultural Fair because the Directors permitted a rival company to display its lights there. It has also refused to furnish lights that were required by the Council in the City Hall because it was not given the contract to put in the electric wires in the building. The city is now paying at the rate of $55,000 per year to this arrogant corporation for mast and other street lights. That is an enormous sum for lighting this city. It is three times as much as is paid by any city of its population in the United States. Not only is this the case, but its lights do not reach the brilliancy or the candle-power which the company affects to guarantee. We have no way of measuring the illuminating power of the lights, but nevertheless we know that we are not getting the amount our money calls for. If we could induce the Thompson-Houston Company to locate a plant here, we would be greatly the gainers by it. Sacramento has always had the advantage of two electric light companies in operation there; hence that city is well lighted.

THE city schools will be opened next Monday after a vacation of three months. It is to be hoped that this is the last of vacations for so preposterously long a time. We are well within the mark when we say that one-half of the children have forgotten during this vacation of three months all they had learned during the nine months they had previously had of half-schooling in most cases. Our children by this kind of neglect are getting their education like the man got out of the well. For every foot he climbed up he fell back two. It must be remembered that children, especially small ones, do not digest, assimilate, absorb and permanently store up in their brains the routine lessons they are taught in school. Much of what they get by rote has no definite meaning to them, and when a lapse of three months comes between school year and school year, they in the main return to their studies as innocent of the learning that had been taught them as they were when they first started out to learn. The Board of Education can spend profitable time in assuring themselves of the facts given above, and which are known to all teachers.

CALIFORNIA pure grape brandies are without question the best in the world. They are without reputation, and for this reason pretenders who do not judge a thing by its merits do not take kindly to the products of our stills. Experts who do judge by intrinsic merit, do take kindly to them. Hon. J. De Barth Shorb some time ago forwarded some samples of his brandies made by the San Gabriel Wine Company to London, to a firm which furnishes the English army and navy with supplies of this kind. The result of the venture was an order for five puncheons of brandy to be forwarded at once to London. There is no doubt this is but the initial one of many orders. The price paid is not made known, but this much is revealed, that if the whole brandy product of this section were sure of as good a market, the price of grapes would rise at once to $20 a ton. These markets will be opened, and that price will be paid for our grapes before many years pass by. As it is the price being paid is $10 a ton. The bankers of this city came forward and offered to advance $100,000 at a low rate of interest to insure the working of the grape crop into wine and brandy. This is being done for the most part by the San Gabriel Wine Company, and the result of the movement was to raise the price of grapes from $7.50 to $10 a ton. So small is the crop that not more than $50,000 will be required to handle all the crop. That is of course in excess of the amounts handled by all the other operators in the district.

Press dispatches to the HERALD.]

FRANK PINE

Didn't Rob a Bank But He Swindled a Hotel Man.

DENVER, September 24.—The sensational reports wired to New York and other eastern cities, last night, that Frank Pine was the projector of the scheme whereby the First National Bank of this city was recently robbed of $21,000 are absolutely without foundation. This statement is made on the authority of Chief of Police Farley and prominent detectives of the city. It is a well known fact that Pine was seriously ill at Minneapolis at the time of the robbery. This story probably grew out of the fact that Pine is here under arrest for swindling a hotel man in Kansas City out of $16,000 on a bogus mining deal. Pine is now lying at the point of death of the enlargement of the spleen.

Free Lead Ores Wanted.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., September 24.—A special from Deming to the Democrat says at a meeting of miners, mine-owners and business men of that city and vicinity, a strong resolution was adopted urging the free importation of lead ore into the United States from Mexico, and emphatically stating that the import duty on lead ores would cripple smelting enterprises, and drive Mexico to adopt retaliatory measures to the detriment of commercial relations with that Republic. The meeting was non-partisan, and well attended by Republicans as well as Democrats.

Panic in a Shoe Factory.

ELMIRA, N. Y.—September 24.—Three hundred employees of the Richardson Shoe Factory were thrown into a panic this morning by the explosion of gas in the basement. Engineer Pierson and a foreman were very seriously injured. The explosion shook the entire building, and blew out all the glass. Over one hundred girls escaped by fire escapes or jumped from the windows to the roofs of adjoining buildings. Aside from minor bruises none of them were injured.

The Belford, Clarke & Co. Failure.

CHICAGO, September 24.—Belford, Clarke & Co.'s failure came up in court today on a motion by the receiver for an order on the Sheriff to turn over to him the property levied on yesterday. The Court directed that the rights of the judgment creditors be fully preserved, and the claims of the latter first be paid out of the proceeds of any sale by the receiver. The receiver is running the business He is at work on an inventory. So far he has found nothing to change the figures of $400,000 liabilities and $250,000 assets.

Maneuvers at Newport.

NEWPORT, R. I., September 24.—The United States cruiser Atlanta went out today for maneuvers and turning trials, and tested its tactical diameter. The high speed trial yesterday was not satisfactory. The Examining Board has now finished with her. The Boston is expected in about two weeks. The Baltimore may come about the same time. The apprentice boys of the United States training station had a sham fight on the island this afternoon. Tonight they repulsed an attack on their camp. Both maneuvers were successful.

Railway Rumors Denied.

BOSTON, September 24.—At the Union Pacific office here it is declared that there is not a syllable of truth in the Omaha report of traffic arrangements with the Manitoba. Traffic Manager Mellen is coming east to meet President Adams on different business. The Union Pacific has not purchased 40,000 tons of steel rails, nor indeed any steel rails, and nothing is known by officials of any Northern Pacific line of steamers in opposition to the Oregon Railway and Navigation.

Medical Students or Ghouls?

CHICAGO, September 24.—In the suburban town of Clyde, this morning, the mutilated body of a man was found lying on the prairie. The body was in sections and not all there. The head was neatly severed from the body and lay beside the trunk, from which all the vital organs had been removed. Portions of the limbs were scattered about. It is possible the fragments came from a dissecting table.

Testimonial to Mrs. Stowe.

HARTFORD, Conn., September 24.—The opera house was crowded to overflowing this afternoon to witness the historical tableaux as a testimonial to Harriet Beecher Stowe. The tableaux illustrate National events from Columbus to date, designed especially to show the progress of woman. The author and manager is Cora Scott Pond, of Boston; Mrs. Livermore is lecturer, and Isabelle Beecher Hooker personates Mrs. Stowe.

Major Powell in Chicago.

CHICAGO, September 24.—Major Powell, Chief of the Geological Survey, who has been in attendance on the Senatorial Committee, investigating irrigation in the West, is in the city. He said the arid land that can be irrigated and made productive in the States and Territories visited, will amount to over 100,000,000 acres. The work of the committee will be the preparation of a report upon the advisability of Congressional appropriations for surveys in the arid districts.

EASTERN HAPPENINGS.

Terrible Accident to a Suburban Train.

AN ENGINEER'S CARELESSNESS.

Five Persons Scalded to Death by Escaping Steam—Other Events.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

CHICAGO, September 24.—Five innocent lives paid the penalty of the wanton carelessness of a railroad engineer at the corner of Vincennes avenue and Eighty-seventh street, this city, this evening. The suburban train on the Rock Island road, leaves every evening at this point the Washington Heights' coach to be caught up by a dummy. This evening the car was left as usual, when a moment later the passengers were horrified to see bearing down upon them at the rate of twelve miles an hour, a heavy freight train of the same road. There was no time for flight. The engineer reversed his engine, but with almost undiminished speed it plowed into the passenger coach until the engine was hidden entirely in the wreck. Wild shrieks and groans announced the horror of the disaster, and as the steam formed in a thick cloud around the scene, the spectators realized that the ill-fated

PASSENGERS WERE BEING ROASTED ALIVE.

Willing hands lent all the assistance possible, but the engineer, having failed to shut off the steam, the steam chest was blown out by the shock of the collision, and the death-dealing vapor hissed forth ceaselessly for nearly an hour. Strange to say not a person was killed by the collision, the loss of life being solely attributed to the scalding steam that enveloped the coach. The dead as taken out were found to be literally roasted. The flesh dropped from their hands and limbs, and their glaring eyes told the horror of their experience.

THE DEAD AND INJURED.

The list of killed is: Mrs. Kelly, J. J. McKinsie, Fred Huebner, Mrs. Brown, and an unknown woman, all of Washington Heights.

Those seriously injured are: Gus Mulcany, Seventy-sixth and Wallace streets, fatally hurt; Miss A. K. Steele, Anton Shuberg and Parker Harden, of Washington Heights. The others hurt sustained but slight injuries.

THE ENGINEER RESPONSIBLE.

The wreck appears to have been entirely due to the almost criminal carelessness of Engineer Twombley. The passenger train was on time. Signals were out at the semaphore, and yet the freight train, regardless of time and signals, plunged into the coach, running at the speed of twelve miles an hour within the city limits. Both Twombley and his fireman jumped and escaped. The engineer has disappeared.

BIDS IN BULK.

Advertisement for Proposals for New Cruisers Modified.

WASHINGTON, September 24.—The re-advertisements issued by the Navy Department inviting proposals for the construction of three cruisers for the navy, of about 2,000 tons displacement each, compelled the bidders to submit separate bids for each vessel. To this some shipbuilding firms entered an objection on the ground that if allowed to bid in bulk for three cruisers they could afford to make their proposals much smaller than the aggregate of separate bids. Secretary Tracy believed the exceptions well taken, and today issued a modification of the former advertisement, allowing bids for two or three vessels in bulk to be submitted. Bidders including more than one vessel will not be required to submit a certified check exceeding $50,000.

SUGAR SECURITIES.

A Panic Among the Small Holders of Certificates.

NEW YORK, September 24.—The rumors recently prevailing about the issues of new securities by the Sugar Trusts and the continued decline in the price of raw sugar in the London market, appears to have struck terror into the hearts of small holders, and as the result, the price of certificates dropped rapidly this morning. The first sale was made at 101⅝, against 102⅝, the closing price yesterday. The rush of long stock then came on, Hamilton selling 4,000 shares, and R. H. Bissell selling 3,000. The decline started by this selling reached numberless stop-orders, and their execution carried the price down to 97½; then supporting orders appeared and the price was bid up to 99. During the decline the number of brokers dealing in certificates was the largest since they were traded in on the Stock Exchange, and much anxiety was expressed in regard to the future of the market for these and other trust securities. A sugar cable from London today reports the market for raw sugar there still weak and declining.

RIDING IN THE RAIN.

The President Rides Out on a Wet Day.

DEER PARK, Md., September 24.—President Harrison and Senator Henry G. Davis left here this morning for Elkins, W. Va. There was a heavy rain-shower. The trip had certain elements of hardship, as it began and ended with a drive of thirteen miles over precipitous mountain roads. During the day the President saw one of the wildest sections of the country—the mountain region of West Virginia. The party returned to Deer Park tonight after a stormy trip. It rained continuously, and even the President's Mackintosh and high rubber boots could not entirely protect him from the drenching. Tomorrow the President and Mrs. Harrison, ex-Senator and Mrs. Henry Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Hatford will attend the Centennial celebration at Cumberland.

HANGING IN THE BALANCE.

The Ives Case Submitted—Jury Locked Up for the Night.

NEW YORK, September 24.—The Ives case opened this morning with summing up by the prosecution.

Colonel Fellows finished his address to the jury at half-past three. After a desultory discussion of certain points with Ives' counsel, the latter made a number of statements which he termed corrections of Fellows' arguments. Recorder Smythe's charge to the jury was lengthy. On the whole it was an impartial, clear exposition of the facts and the law governing them. The jury retired at about 5 o'clock.

At 9:45 the jury sent a communication to the Recorder, asking for further instructions. They were taken to the court-room and asked to have a portion of the Recorder's charge read to them from the stenographer's notes. Lawyer Brooke strenuously objected to the reading of the stenographer's notes, and took an exception to the Recorder's ruling. The jury were again sent back.

At 11:35, as the jury had not reached a verdict, Recorder Smythe locked them up for the night.

DISPENSER OF PENSIONS.

General Powell Now Thought to be the Coming Man.

WASHINGTON, September 24.—Tonight the friends of General Powell, of Illinois, are hopeful that he will be selected by President Harrison as Pension Commissioner. General Powell is a resident of Belleville and a prominent G. A. R. man of that section. A. B. Campbell, of Kansas, whose name has been used in connection with this office, is said by western men to be really seeking appointment as District Attorney for Kansas.

WARNER'S EMPHATIC NO.

KANSAS CITY, September 24.—Major Warner arrived from Washington this morning. In an interview he replied to the question, will you accept the position of Commissioner of Pensions? "No; I will not."

TANNER WAS TOO LIBERAL.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., September 24.—Shortly after Corporal Tanner resigned his office as Commissioner of Pensions, H. Clay Hall, of this village, wrote him a letter expressing his sympathy. Hall received a letter in reply which throws light upon the causes that led to his resignation, as follows:

MY DEAR FRIEND—I thank you for your hearty words of sympathy. I endeavored as Commissioner to religiously carry out the promises made in the platform, and the utmost they can prove against me with any shadow of success is that I was too liberal, and the truth of the charge depends upon the appreciation of the man, who, as my superior, judges the action taken. It was very evident that the Honorable Secretary thought I was too liberal, and as he was Secretary and I only Commissioner, of course I went under, but you can rest assured I did not tender my resignation until I had personal assurance of both the President and Secretary that the report of the investigating committee, which lay before them, contained no reflection on my character, nor impeached my integrity. Very truly yours,

JAMES TANNER.

THE HELENA BRICK.

Many Bankers Go to See the Big Bar of Gold.

NEW YORK, September 24.—A pilgrimage of bankers and railroad Presidents caused a steady stream of visitors to the Chase National Bank yesterday, where there was on exhibition something which made many mouths water. A big brick of gold, the biggest ever run into shape from the assay office, was sent by the Montana National Bank at Helena, Montana, in which city it had been turned out by the United States assay office. It was transported here from the West free of charge by the United States Express Company, out of admiration for the splendid lump. The weight of the brick was 500 pounds, and was it built on the idea of expressing $100,000 in bulk, but the assay value runs $34,629 over that amount.

WILL BE ACCEPTED.

The Charleston's Acceptance by the Government Assured.

WASHINGTON, September 24.—The report of the Trial Board on the recent official trip of the cruiser Charleston, which has been received from San Francisco, has been referred to the Chiefs of the Bureau of Construction and Engineering to report as to whether the tests were satisfactory. This is a perfunctory operation, necessitated by the rules of the Department, and there is no doubt that the Secretary will order the acceptance of the vessel before the end of the week.

THE PETREL TO BE TURNED OVER.

BALTIMORE, September 24.—The final official inspection of the Petrel was made yesterday. Today she starts for Norfolk, where she will be turned over to the Government.

Aeronauts Drowned.

UTICA, N. Y., September 24.—Edward M. Walworth, aged 24, of Ilion, made a balloon ascension from the Cooperstown fair grounds. The balloon ascended to the height of about a mile, and was carried out over the lake and seen to descend rapidly into the waters. Help was immediately sent, but no trace of the aeronaut could be found.

REVAL, France, September 24.—The parachutist Leroux, in descending from a balloon today, fell into the water and was drowned.

Condensed Telegrams.

The French men-of-war Arethuse and Roland arrived at New York Tuesday morning.

A large cave lined with carbonates has been found in the Lincoln mine at San Pedro, N. M.

The New York Graphic, an afternoon pictorial paper, has suspended publication, and the office is in the hands of the Sheriff.

Ex-Surgeon General Joseph Beale, of the United States Navy, died on Monday, at his residence in Philadelphia. He was placed on the retired list in 1876.

Reports from various localities in Florida indicate that Monday's storm was a disastrous one to property, although no further loss of life is reported.

The new Hotel Princeton at Buena Vista, Colorado, the property of the Buena Vista Land and Improvement Company, burned early Tuesday morning. Loss, $25,000; insured for $13,000.

A new sugar refining company has been incorporated at Baltimore. William M. Spence, Frank Frieck, Joshua Levering, William F. Frieck and Rufus Woods are the incorporators. The capital stock is $1,000,000.

At Lockport, N. Y., Hon. H. M. Southworth, one of the early settlers of Niagara county, killed himself. No cause is known. He was one of the earliest and most eminent anti-slavery agitators, and one of the first members of the Republican party.

In the Circuit Court at Wheeling, W. Va., the case of the State against Harry Seybold, indicted for embezzling funds of the Bank of Wheeling, was called. Defendant failed to respond and his bond was forfeited. Seybold's whereabouts is unknown.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., September 24.—A new directory, with a special record of those lost by the disaster of May 31st, has been published. The number drowned is put at 3,500. That is considered a close estimate, it being impossible to obtain exact figures.

Lewis Brothers & Company, dry goods and commission merchants, have made a formal offer to their creditors to compromise at 57½ cents on the dollar. The creditors to whom the settlement has been presented have expressed a willingness to accept the terms and have the firm resume business.

A GRAND FIZZLE.

The Murphy-Warren Fight Remains Unfinished.

SIXTY-EIGHT FRUITLESS ROUNDS

The Sporting Fraternity Disgusted. Talk of Withholding the Pugilists' Pay.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

SAN FRANCISCO, September 24.—Tommy Warren, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Frank Murphy, of Birmingham, England, fought to a finish at the rooms of the California Athletic Club tonight for a purse of $1,800, and the feather-weight championship. Murphy weighed 119 pounds and was seconded by Martin Murphy and Patsy Hogan. Warren weighed about 118 pounds, and was seconded by John Donaldson and Paddy Gorman. Hiram Cook was referee.

THE FIGHT IN DETAIL.

Time was called at 9:15 p. m.

From the first to the fifth round both men sparred warily, Murphy occasionally rushing, getting in a number of body blows which Warren made little effort to stop.

In the third round, during some close fighting, Murphy landed a hot right-hander on Warren's mouth, drawing blood slightly.

In the fifth round Murphy landed on Warren's head as the latter essayed to duck, and followed it up by driving his man around the ring, punishing him badly.

In the sixth round Warren caught three bad left-handers full in the mouth and nose, and his lip began swelling. He slipped frequently, and when Murphy rushed him he saved himself by clinching.

In the seventh he landed a right hand stopper on the Englishman's ear that dazed the latter, but the call of time prevented further fighting.

In the next two rounds the only features were a bad left-hander which Warren caught full in the face as he ducked, and a clever swing with which he found Murphy's ear. Warren's eye showed signs of swelling.

In the eleventh round Warren rushed the fighting, and got in return some hard right-handers in the face which bruised and staggered him. Murphy punished him severely in this round, during which Warren failed to make a good return.

In the twelfth round Warren came up flushed and slightly winded. Murphy continued to lead heavily with his left, but Warren gave him a hard right-hander on the ear. Murphy's face was badly cut, but he still lead heavily.

WARREN SAVING HIS STRENGTH.

From the thirteenth to the seventeenth round Murphy continued to land his left in Warren's face, which the latter as often took without a return, but clinched or broke ground when possible, apparently saving his strength for a final effort.

From the seventeenth to the twentieth round the charges were more nearly even, Warren getting in some good body blows and upper-cutting Murphy's face in the clinches.

At the end of the eighteenth round Warren [illegible] by Murphy's left as the latter broke away. Murphy continued to rush fiercely, leading for Warren's face with his left, while his right found his opponent's ribs. Warren received some severe upper cutting. His manner of receiving Murphy's rushes was [illegible] his head, receiving them on his left ear and shoulder, but in clinching he punished Murphy equally.

TOMMY PUTS ON STEAM.

From the twenty-first to the twenty-sixth round both men's tactics varied little. Warren in the last round, however, gradually put on steam, driving Murphy to the ropes in the corners and landing on the Britisher's ribs and jaw. He drew blood slightly from Murphy's mouth in the twenty-third round.

From the twenty-sixth to the twenty-ninth round Warren forced the fighting, using both hands. Murphy was breathing hard and losing ground and in the twenty-eighth round he received a blow on the right ear that nearly knocked him out, the call of time alone saving him.

In the thirtieth round Warren knocked the Englishman against the ropes by a blow on the ear, staggering him and rendering him powerless except to hug. Twice they clinched, preventing the knock-out blow, and though Warren got the Englishman in chancery the gong saved him.

In the thirty-first round, when apparently about to fall, Murphy rallied with his right and left in Warren's face, staggering him.

GIVE AND TAKE.

In the next five rounds Murphy freshened, while Warren tired slightly. Murphy's left eye was closed and Warren had a large lump over his left optic. He received a number of hard blows in ducking.

From the thirty-eighth to the forty-fifth round little was done except in the forty-fourth round, when Warren punched Murphy about the head with some neat right and left hand thrusts. A heavy left-hander on the right side of Murphy's lower jaw in the forty-eighth round was the only good blow in the succeeding three rounds.

In the forty-ninth round Murphy tried a pivotal blow for the second time, but only succeeded in laying his left glove with a smack on Warren's mouth.

In the fifty-third round Warren's left eye was completely closed, while the Englishman had succeeded in getting his nearly open. Warren's left ear was swollen largely. The men had done almost nothing for the last four rounds and were frequently hissed.

THE STAGE CLEARED.

In the fifty-eighth there were several rushes, and Murphy again failed to knock Warren out by a pivotal swing. Hardly a blow was struck in the fifty succeeding rounds.

From the fifty-eighth to the sixty-eighth round not a blow was struck. Both men were in good condition, and Referee Cook left the stage, declaring that the club had washed its hands of the whole affair. President Fulda stopped the speeches of the two principals, and ordered the stage cleared, as the referee had declared the match unsatisfactory. The club's directors will probably refuse to award the men any part of the purse.

Killed in the Prize Ring.

ATLANTA, Ga., September 4.—Ernest Willingham, the colored pugilist, was killed by a blow from the fist of Tom Branch tonight. The men were sparring when Branch knocked Willingham down, breaking his neck.

COAST CULLINGS.

Fierce Field and Forest Fires Again Raging.

MANY ACRES BURNED OVER.

Heffernan Interviewed at Seattle. Honors to Senator Stanford. Other Items.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

SANTA ANA, Cal., September 24.—Fire started in the grass on the foothills near the town of El Modena today. A violent wind storm was raging at the time and the flames spread with alarming rapidity. On the San Joaquin ranch a band of sheep, numbering 3,000, were overtaken by the fire, and it is thought all perished.

LATER—The band of sheep reported burned are found to be safe.

SANTA ROSA, Cal., September 24.—A fierce forest fire has been raging for eight or nine hours past in the Los Guilicos valley, eight miles east of this city. The fire started on a portion of the Decker & Jewett ranch, and burned along the lower ridges towards the new town of Los Guilicos. The ranchers in the neighborhood are out in full force fighting the flames. It is feared the flames have done several thousand dollars worth of damage. The country is very dry, and the least spark is not unlikely to produce a devastating conflagration.

SAN MATEO, Cal., September 24.—Fires which the Spring Valley employees started to burn brush got beyond control this morning, and burned over a thousand acres west of Crystal Springs lake. Three miles of fence was destroyed. The fire is under control. Another serious fire broke out Monday morning in the redwoods of the Coast Side Mountains. Borden & Hartley's shingle mill was destroyed. Much damage was done. The fire is spreading.

CALISTOGA, Cal., September 24.—Fire in upper Napa valley, southeast of town, this afternoon, burned over one hundred acres and destroyed many miles of fence. A change in the wind is all that saved Calistoga.

COLTON, Cal., September 24.—Forest fires broke out in the mountains, today, near Waterman's cañon.

HEFFERNAN AT SEATTLE.

He Talks About His Connection With the Cronin Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 24.—A special from Seattle, W. T., says a morning paper publishes an interview with J. J. Heffernan, who has been mentioned in Chicago dispatches as being the man who induced Dr. Cronin to visit the Carlson cottage. Heffernan is at present working as a longshoreman. Heffernan said: "I am the party referred to. My name is J. J. Heffernan. I have lived in Oakland, Cal., nearly all my life, and am a friend of Tom Desmond. When the papers stated that Desmond had a hand in the Cronin murder, I expressed myself pretty strong, and denounced the attempt to fasten the crime on Sullivan, Desmond and the Irish societies. I had been a member of the Clan-na-Gael and United Irishmen, but knew nothing of the Cronin murder. In Oakland, August 7th, a reporter accused me of being associated with the case, but I laughed at him. The next day I sailed for Seattle."

Honoring Stanford.

RED BLUFF, Cal., September 24.—An invitation from a large number of citizens has been accepted by Senator and Mrs. Stanford to attend an informal reception at an early day in this place. The invitation gave emphasis to the bequests made in founding the Leland Stanford, Jr., University, which has large property interests in Tehama county.

SAN JOSE, Cal., September 24.—At a meeting of the Stanford Monument Committee tonight it was decided to construct the monument of Santa Clara county sandstone, and to locate it at Alum rocks.

A Missing Schooner.

PORT TOWNSEND, Washington, September 24.—A letter received here from the Deputy Collector at Sitka, Alaska, says the schooner Sitka from Yakutal reports that the schooner Alpha, Captain Hamill, having on board the owner, J. J. Kuhn, formerly Deputy Collector, his son, and a crew of Indians, had sailed from Yakutal one week previous for Sitka. During that time terrific gales were experienced, and it is thought the schooner, with all hands, has been lost.

Elevator Boy Crushed.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 24.—Martin Rasmussen, a boy who was engaged this morning to run an elevator in the Cosmopolitan hotel, became frightened while the cage was ascending from the second floor, and tried to jump out. He was caught between the floor of the cage and the ceiling of the second story, and was badly crushed about the abdomen and hips. He escaped without breaking any bones, but it is feared he is injured internally.

Murderous Colored Troopers.

TUCSON, September 24.—A special from Globe says: Sergeant James Logan, colored Troop E, Tenth Cavalry, the reputed chief of the gang who murdered William Fleming at San Carlos, has been arrested and will be taken to Tucson for trial on the charge of murder. This makes seven arrests, all belonging to a supposed gang of "Molly Maguires."

An Ex-Governor Ill.

PORTLAND, Ore., September 24.—Geo. L. Woods, ex-Governor of Oregon and Utah, was taken with congestion of the brain while out driving today. For three hours his condition was critical and he was not expected to live. He is resting easy tonight.

Accident in Idaho Mine.

GRASS VALLEY, September 24.—This morning at 10 o'clock a cave occurred in the depths of the Idaho mine, catching William Richards and Frank Bowden. Richards is reported badly hurt, but no bones broken. Bowden's hurts are thought to be not serious.

Slight Earthquake.

NAPA, Cal., September 24.—A slight earthquake was felt here at 8 o'clock this morning.

TURF TOPICS.

Kingston Wins the Great Special Race at Gravesend.

GRAVESEND, September 24.—Fully 12,000 people were present today. The event of the day was the first special race, in which the "King of the Turf," Kingston, cleverly ridden by Murphy, passed under the wire a length in front of Raceland, Banker August Belmont's representative. The pace was very slow in the first quarter and passing the stand. After having traversed the half-mile, Raceland led by four lengths. At the end of three-quarters Raceland was two lengths in the van, Kingston and Los Angeles were lapped, with Tenny three parts of a length behind. Making the turn for home Los Angeles was beaten and Barnes began to apply his whip. Hamilton and McLaughlin also went to the whip, but Murphy merely shook Kingston up. The great racer gamely responded, and coming with a rush was soon in the van, Raceland then was second, Tenny third and Los Angeles was out of it. The pace in the last furlong was terrific, but Kingston was king of the lot, and amid the wildest excitement he galloped under the wire a winner by a length in 2:06½. The fractional time was 26, 51¾, 1:16½, 141¾, 2:06½, a half second better than the record.

The other results were:

Six furlongs—Gregory won, Mamie B. second, June Day third; time, 1:15.

Mile and an eighth—Taragon won, Golden Reel second, Bronzomarte third; time, 1:54½.

Willow stakes, two-year-olds, six furlongs—Reclare won, Ruperta second, Sinaloa second; time, 1:15¼.

Mile—Cracksman won, Ben Harrison second, Etruria third; time, 1:42¾.

Five furlongs—Meriden won, Sam Morse second, Col. Hunt third; time, 1:13¾.

Five furlongs—Pearl Set won, Grimaldi second, Young Duke third; time, 1:01¼.

LOUISVILLE, September 24.—Weather clear, track good.

Half mile—Aunt Kate won, Sister Geneva second, Silver Lake third; time, .51.

Half mile—Blue Maid won, Marantha second, Fakir third; time 50½.

Handicap, one and a sixteenth miles—Wary won, Carus second, Kate Malone third; time 1:49¼.

Three-fourths of a mile—Swamp Fox won, Bettina second, Mayo third; time 1:17.

Stanford stakes, mile—Blarney Stene, Jr., won, Kitty Cheatham second, Bill Letcher third; time 1:45.

Seven-eighths of a mile—Lucy P won, Mackenzie second, Bonair third; time 1:30¼.

PHILADELPHIA, September 24.—Grand Circuit trots postponed; rain.

STOCKTON, September 24.—The San Joaquin County Fair opened today.

First race, Pacific Coast 2-year-old stakes, was a walk-over for Regal Wilkes.

Pacific Coast, free-for-all 3-year-old, stake—J. R. won; time 1:20.

class 2;26 purse $1,000—Arrol won, May Low second; best time, 2:24½

Special race between Don Tomas, Pink, Melrose and Gus Wilkes—Don Tomas took second, third and fourth heats, and race; best time, 2:24.

SACRAMENTO, September 24.—Senator Stanford has given $1,000 to the races to be held here next spring, under the auspices of the State Agricultural Society.

New Law Governing Divorce.

By determined efforts of the most prominent lawyers in our State, the Legislature has passed an act governing divorce cases, to-wit:

Be it resolved, That upon the passage of this act it shall be legal grounds for divorce for either the husband or wife to buy, sell or exchange any article of household use except at colton's, 202 south spring street; and be it further resolved that he be appointed purchasing and distributing agent for southern california.

Fall and Winter 1889-'90.

It is a well understood fact that outside of a few houses in the large cities our garments are unequalled for style, fit and workmanship. On account of our reputation for very fine high priced work many are of the impression that we make nothing else. While we keep our reputation above the usual standard we sell suits as low as $35 and trousers as low as $10. Our Fall and Winter importations of woolens are now in stock and we will be pleased to display them to intending purchasers. Polaski Bros. 114 North Main street.

The Verdict Unanimous

Is that the house of Hawley, King & Co., 66, 68 and 70 North Los Angeles street, is headquarters for stylish carts, buggies and carriages. You will also find there all kinds of agricultural implements, including anything from a spade to a complete threshing outfit. Are you in chickens? If so, there is the place to go for your corn-sheller, bone mill and poultry netting. Are you a road maker? Call and see their grading plows and scrapers, and the celebrated Improved Reversible American Champion Grader. It will make a first class road for one hundred dollars a mile.

ROSH HASHANAH.

The 5,650th Celebration of the Israelite's New Year.

This evening with sundown the Israelites all over the habitable globe will begin their celebration of their New Year, in commemoration of the anniversary of the creation. It is called Yom Hasikoron, Day of Memorial, because God remembers the deeds and actions of every mortal. It is also the day of the blowing of the cornet, because God was established King over the whole creation, and as it is customary to blow the cornet when such an event occurs, the cornet is blown to acknowledge God's sovereignty upon earth.

The services at the Synagogue, on Fort street, this evening, will be conducted by Rev. A. Blum. They will commence at 6 o'clock and tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The subject of the sermon will be, "The God of the Bible a God of Love."

Rev. A. Blum has written the following poem in honor of the occasion:

THE VEILED FUTURE.

On the dividing line of Time we stand,
'Neath Thy Eternities, Great Lord of all!
Thy ministering Love on either hand,
Where shadows loom, or blessed sunrays fall.
The teaching Past guides to the Future veiled,
The souls that oft in signal victory failed,

To this world's knowledge many wrought in vain,
Yielding to stress of worldly circumstance;
Yet they were conquerors in the Soul's domain,
Spreading the glory of our Time's advance.
Only by kindred great and true hearts hailed,
These chosen few "lead to the Future veiled."

They onward press "to music of the spheres"
In dauntless march of song, triumphantly!
Life's inner peace kept mid the battle years,
The heart's best service vowed to Liberty;
The humbly Great, the unknown True, bewailed
Of blinded crowds, lead to the Future veiled.

Lift up to God your hearts in this great hour!
Then world ward turn in loving sympathy;
With lavish hand give the enriched soul's dower,
The joys of earth and Immortality;
The New Year's grace of faithful Israel hailed
Leads in high trust unto the Future veiled!

Peace, in holy name of Thine,
Wield the scepter's might divine,
O'er Thy new creation wrought
Out of Love's divinest thought,
Higher aim be understood
Of the human brotherhood;

Justice, Mercy, Tenderness,
Find Thy haven's blessedness!
God, our Father evermore!
Bid all saddened spirits soar,
Hopeful of their destiny,
For religious trust to Thee!

Thy light of guidance by the seeker hailed.
Lead on and upward past the future veiled.

Rev. A. W. Edelman has written the following address:

LE-SHO-NOH TO-VOH TI-KO-SHWU.

Can you read these words? Do you know what they mean? They contain the wishes your friend entertains for the whole house of Israel, on the coming Rosh-Hashanah or New Year. With the setting of the sun begins the Hebrew New Year, 5,650 A. M. (after the creation of Adam, according to the biblical chronology). It will be celebrated all over the world with the same solemn rites and ceremonies as did our forefathers of old. In Europe, Asia, Africa and the isles of the sea, in whatsoever place a handful of the scattered tribes of Israel have reared their tabernacle, there will be observed the solemn observances of the Divine command: "And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, speak unto the children of Israel: In the seventh month, on the first of the month, shall ye have a Sabbath, a memorial of blowing of the trumpet, an holy convocation. Ye shall do no servi e work."

These words are the authority for the observation of the festival. It is to the strict obedience of our forefathers to this command that we owe in a great measure the preservation of the unity and integrity of our people during the gloomy centuries of the past. And it is to our continued observance of these divinely instituted formalities and customs that we still exhibit to the world our steadfast devotion to our imperishable religion, a pure, compact, coherent and peculiar people—a spectacle to historians and statesmen of the greatest interest. And while the world continues to marvel at such remarkable preservation, we unfalteringly preserve, and upon the annual holidays, which command almost unconsciously their observance, we turn with especial reverence to our Father in heaven, and amid voices of homage and remembrance we send forth the glad sound of the shofar.

According to the expression of our Rabbis, the New Year's day is called Yom Hazekran, a day of remembrance, or a day of memorial. They say that we are compared to a traveler who has a long journey before him; he often halts by the way to look back and reflect how far he has gone, and to consider the way yet before him. Thus is the period of memorial to be considered. The New Year's day is the halting place by the way and the Day of Atonement is the terminus. Memory should be consulted to reflect how far we have gone from the direct path, to strive and find a better road. "Remember how you h ve passed the year which has just receded." Have you done your duty to God? To your families, to yourselves and to your fellow men? Have you, like Daniel of old, prayed thrice daily to the Lord your God? Have you moistened the tree of Judaism by infusing strength into its withering roots, or have you permitted the tree planted by the Divinity of God to decay for the want of religious support?"

We feel happy and delighted when our mental eye rests upon the hours in which we followed the better impulses of our divine nature, in which we raised ourselves above our lower appetites and conquering the temptations that beset our way, proved ourselves in the eyes of God and man as pure characters, as men of honor and moral integrity, as Israelites of enlightened piety, and we feel unhappy and degraded, when, in reviewing the past, we discover moments which cast a dark shadow upon the light of our conscience, in which we followed the inclination of our hearts, in which our moral strength was subdued and fell a victim to sin and passion.

Such recollections, whether elevating or humiliating our pride, arouse in us all the sacred wish to be in the coming year truer to ourselves and to our fellow man, truer to higher nature, truer to our sacred religion, truer to God.

Oh, blessed day, appointed by divine love. We welcome thee, and joyfully open our hearts to receive thy blessings; we welcome and hail thee as an angel of heaven, charged by Him who sent thee to bring light to our intellect peace to our souls, happiness to our hearts, joy and exaltation to our lives, and new hopes, new strength and new endurance, in our sacred struggles. We hail thee as the herald of brighter days, of a better future, of a higher civilization, of a purer conception of religion and duty, of a deeper reverence of God, His sacred name and His commandments. Congratulating and offering our best wishes to each other with feelings of sincere friendship, let us pledge our lives to be true and faithful Israelites, men and citizens; true to the mission which God has laid upon our shoulders, and faithful in the work it requires of us; true in our devotion to truth, justice and humanity, and faithful in our aspiration to all that is great and noble and glorious in man; true in our loyalty to our great commonwealth, and faithful in our duties as patriots and citizens. Let us pray that our Heavenly Father support us in our endeavor to live a good and virtuous life, protect our homes and families, bless our children to thrive, to flourish and prosper in bodily and mental vigor, ennobled in their minds, sanctified in their feelings, and devoted with heart and soul to virtue and goodness. And may you all be inscribed by the hand of our good, loving and merciful Father in the book of everlasting life and everlasting happiness, is the sincere wish of your humble but true friend, E.

The Hotel Metropole Fire.

There was a bad alarm of fire turned in on Sunday night at Catalina island. In some way a fire started in the kitchen roof, and the flames burst out fiercely for a time. Luckily there was no wind, and plenty of salt water handy, so that the volunteers soon formed a bucket brigade, and within fifteen minutes the fire was extinguished and all was quiet again. The kitchen, however, was so badly upset that the day of closing was somewhat hastened, and all the guests returned yesterday. The damage to the roof and walls amounted to about $200.

SWIFT'S SPECIFIC cured me of malignant Blood Poison after I had been treated in vain with old so-called remedies of Mercury and Potash. S. S. S. not only cured the Blood Poison, but relieved the Rheumatism which was caused by the poisonous minerals. GEO. BOVELL, 122 3d Avenue, N. Y.

Scrofula developed on my daughter—swelling and lumps on her neck. We gave her SWIFT'S SPECIFIC, and the result was wonderful and the cure prompt. S. A. DEARMOND, Cleveland, Tenn.

SWIFT'S SPECIFIC is entirely a vegetable remedy, and is the only medicine which permanently cures Scrofula, Blood Humors, Cancer and Contagious Blood Poison. Send for books on Blood and Skin Diseases, mailed free.

A Wonderful Cure.

This is a true likeness of me wearing artificial nose and upper lip after a BLOOD DISEASE had consumed my nose and upper lip, roof of my mouth and palate, cured by Hibbard's Herb Extract. This is not a patent medicine but a simple preparation of roots and herbs that cured me over 44 years ago, since when I have cured thousands with its use. Send for list of testimonials and history of my case, or call on me any day, or write and describe your case. Advice free. MRS. J HIBBARD.

This certifies that I, A. T. Wilder, was agent for this extract years ago in the East. It never failed to cure all Blood Diseases. The Company wishes me to act as Sole Managing Agent west of the Rocky Mountains. I have accepted this agency, and I shall keep it for sale, Whole sale and Retail. The price PER BOTTLE is $1.00, or SIX FOR $5.00. Ask your druggist and they will get it for you. Or for particulars, testimonials and medicine, call or address me at my residence or office, 86 Turner street, Los Angeles, Cal. A. T. WILDER.

LOS ANGELES CITY, July 15, 1889.

Mr. A. T. Wilder—Dear Sir: This certifies that my little girl was sick with some blood disease. The doctors said it was cancer, and would have to be cut out. The HIBBARD EXTRACT you telegraphed for CURED my child, and that was over two years ago.

PROPOSALS TO TAKE AND DISPOSE OF THE SEWAGE OF THE CITY OF LOS ANGELES.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED by the undersigned up to 10 o'clock a. m. of Monday, the 21st day of October, 1889, from any person, firm or corporation, to take and dispose of the sewage of the city of Los Angeles for a term of fifty years; said sewage to be taken at the following points, namely:

All the sewage of East Los Angeles, Boyle Heights, at Sixth and Anderson streets; all the sewage collected at the S. W. corner of the city, from the central and western portions of the city, except the 175 inches already contracted for by the South Side Irrigation Company, be taken at the south boundary line of the city, near Figueroa street.

Parties bidding are to enter into a good and sufficient bond to relieve the city from all responsibility of the disposing of the sewage collected at above named points, for time specified.

All proposals must be accompanied by a bond or certified check, for the amount of $10,000, as a guarantee that the parties will enter into the contract, if awarded to them.

By order of the Council of the City of Los Angeles at its meeting held September 17, 1889.

FREEMAN G. TEED,

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE SALE

WILLIAM ANDERES, PLAINTIFF, VS. William H Stuart, defendant.—Sheriff's sale.—No. 11,227.

Order of sale and decree of foreclosure and sale.

Under and by virtue of an order of sale and decree of foreclosure and sale, issued out of the Superior Court of the county of Los Angeles, State of California, on the 3d day of September, A. D. 1889, in the above entitled action, wherein William Anderes, the above named plaintiff, obtained a judgment and decree of foreclosure and sale against William H. Stuart, defendant, on the 3d day of September, A. D. 1889, for the sum of 870 65 dollars, in lawful money of the United States, which said decree was on the 4th day of August, A. D. 1889, recorded in judgment book 13 of said court, at page 81, I am commanded to sell all that certain lot, piece or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in the city of Los Angeles, county of Los Angeles, State of California, and bounded and described as follows:

Lot numbered fifteen (15) on Fuller street of Millar's subdivision of a portion of the Garey Place tract, as per map of said subdivision recorded in book 6 of miscellaneous records, on page 77, in Los Angeles County Recorder's office.

Public notice is hereby given that on Thursday, the 26th day of September, A. D. 1889, at 12 o'clock m. of that day, in front of the Court House door of the county of Los Angeles, on Spring street, I will, in obedience to said order of sale and decree of foreclosure and sale, sell the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment, with interest and costs, etc., to the highest and best bidder, for cash lawful money of the United States.

Dated this 4th day of September, 1889.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF LOS ANgeles county, State of California.

Annie L. Fest, Plaintiff, vs. Lewis L. Fest, defendant.

Action brought in the Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles, State of California, and the complaint filed in said County of Los Angeles in the office of the Clerk of said Superior Court.

The people of the State of California send greeting to Lewis L. Fest, Defendant.

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff, in the Superior Court in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons, if served within this county; or, if served elsewhere, within thirty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to obtain the judgment and decree of the Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between Plaintiff and Defendant, and that plaintiff be decreed to resume her maiden name of Annie L. Mullowny, and for all proper relief, and for costs of suit. Reference is had to complaint for particulars.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will cause your default to be entered and will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the complaint.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles, State of California, this 30th day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine.

D. 1889, in the above entitled action, wherein William Quay, the above named plaintiff, obtained a judgment and decree of foreclosure and sale against Charles H. Riggins et al., defendants, on the 27th day of May, A. D. 1889, for the sum of $3887.50, in lawful money of the United States, which said decree was on the 15th day of September, A. D. 1889, recorded in judgment book 12 of said Court, at page 290; I am commanded to sell all those certain lots, pieces or parcels of land, situate, lying and being in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, and bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the west side of Fair Oaks avenue, said point being the northeast corner of land of J. Smith; thence running along the north line of said Smith 490.5 feet; thence north 45 feet; thence east 490.5 feet to the west line of Fair Oaks avenue; thence south along the west line of Fair Oaks avenue 45 feet to the place of beginning. The same being in Division 'C" of the San Gabriel Orange Grove Association, according to the map of the San Gabriel Orange Grove Association as recorded in book 2, page 556 of the miscellaneous records of Los Angeles county. Also lot No. 28 of the Central tract, as the same is designated and delineated upon a map recorded in book 2, page 82 of the miscellaneous records of Los Angeles county, the said lot being situated in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

Public notice is hereby given, that on Saturday, the 12th day of October, A. D. 1889, at 12 o'clock m. of that day, in front of the Court House door of the County of Los Angeles, on Spring street, I will, in obedience to said order of sale and decree of foreclosure and sale, sell the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment, with interest and costs, etc., to the highest and best bidder, for cash lawful money of the United States.

Dated this 17th day of September, 1889.

M. G. AGUIRRE,
Sheriff of Los Angeles county.
By A. M. THORNTON, Under Sheriff.

PERSONAL.

Prof. T. S. C. Lowe got back to the city last evening from Norristown Pa. He has been spending several months in the East.

An error crept into the HERALD yesterday in regard to Mr. B. M. Lelong. He was married about a year ago, and the young lady who owns him is of the Bay City. Mr. Crow's girls are all boys.

Mr. Tom Randolph, President of the Merchants and Planters National Bank of Sherman, Texas, and one of the most gifted and prominent bankers of the Lone Star State, has been in Los Angeles the past week inspecting the beauties of the city and surroundings with his old friend, Mr. A. D. Childress. Mr. Randolph has been on the Pacific Coast for the last two months on his bridal tour. He and his charming young wife reserved Los Angeles for the last of their visit, and were more charmed with the city and surroundings than any part of California.

W. L. Lockwood, Chicago; B. N. Young and wife, Mrs. Dr. Hall, and Mrs. R. H. McGarvin, San Diego; Captain N. V. Hatfield, Manchester, Mass.; Rev. A. H. Carrier and wife, Santa Barbara; A. J. Jalhus, Sig Kline, H. S. Milzner, M. Erumberg, Gus E. Dorn, N. B. Harmon, T. M. Humphrey, A. D. Grey and R. Stevenson, of San Francisco; J. J. Deane, of the San Francisco Chronicle; Rev. C. F. Loop, Pomona; Major George E. Gard and wife, Alosta; H. H. McCallister, St. James hotel San Diego; E. B. Hall and wife, Santa Barbara; H. C. Sibley, Boston, Mass., are at the Hollenbeck.

NEWS NOTES.

The Little Rustlers defeated the Light Weights, by a score of 9 to 0, yesterday.

The Police Commission will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock and the Fire Commission this morning.

There will be a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Produce Exchange at 11 o'clock this morning.

The members of Massasoit Tribe, I. O. R. M., No. 59, will meet at room No. 15, Panorama building, 220 South Main street, tomorrow evening.

The Board of Health appears to be taking as great a vacation as the Park Commission. Neither body has transacted any business for some months.

Transfers of real estate yesterday amounted to $35,914, and were 37 in number. Of these 14 were for more than $1,000 each, and 9 were for nominal considerations.

City Taxes are being paid very slowly, and the indications are that there will be a rush towards the last. Up to last night only $28,056, out of $450,000, had been paid to the Tax Collector.

The Board of Education will meet this evening, and will discuss the bids on coal and on the school desks. Several other matters in connection with the opening of the schools will be considered.

Judge John Haynes delivered a very learned and able address to the Law Students' Association last evening, on the subject of "Domestic Relations." The meeting was well attended by both students and practicing attorneys.

Bids for the $200,000 school bonds will be received by the Council next Monday. It is expected that the contracts for constructing the additions to the present schools will be let by the Council, inside of a month.

The City Council will meet in adjourned session, tomorrow morning, as a Committee of the Whole, to consider the offers of sites for new schools. It is said that some of the offers are more reasonable than was expected.

CRIMINAL NOTES.

In the Township Court yesterday, Justice Savage imposed a fine of $5 upon J. Murphy for disturbing the peace on Monday night.

The only arrival at the County Jail yesterday was Charles McMillan, who was brought up from Wilmington to serve a six days's sentence for disturbing the peace.

The cases against the Edelmans, in connection with the forging of county warrants, were yesterday transferred to Department Three of the Superior Courts. Judge Wade will therefore try the cases.

Mike Silbener, the proprietor of a "junk shop" on Alameda street, was arraigned before Police Judge Owens yesterday, upon the charge of buying stolen property. He was ordered to appear for trial on the 30th inst., and was admitted to bail in the meantime in the sum of $500.

Mrs. Laura E. Sample, the alleged forger of the Susand will, was arraigned by Justice Savage yesterday upon the charge of forgery and her examination set for the 30th inst. In the meantime she was required to find sureties in the sum of $2,500.

In the Police Court yesterday, Harry Conkling was held to answer by Judge Stanton to the second charge of burglary preferred against him, bail being required in the sum of $500. He is alleged to have broken into a house on the corner of Third street and Santa Fe avenue on the night of the 8th inst. and stolen some clothing.

A well-known character named Jack Burns appeared before Police Judge Owens yesterday to answer to the charge of disturbing the peace of the Alhambra saloon on Tuesday night. As Jack had only been released from the City Jail some six or eight hours, the Court sentenced him to imprisonment in the County Jail for 200 days, but allowed him until 8 p. m. in which to leave town.

A complaint was filed in the Township Court yesterday by Mrs. Mary Shea, charging James Murratt with having disturbed her peace by using abusive and and traducing language in her presence. She alleges that Murratt, who is a collector for Messrs. Pauly & Crawford, [illegible]

Pedro street, for the rent, and committed the offense named because she was unable to pay him the money.

J. Kercheval, a farmer residing on Lemon, near Santa Fe avenue, swore to a complaint in the City Justice Court yesterday charging H. Gier, a butcher, with severing property from the freehold. He alleges that for some time past Gier has been in the habit of driving past his walnut orchard and helping himself to the nuts without having first obtained the consent of the owner.

Yesterday afternoon the two Mannings, Billy and John, appeared before Police Judge Stanton to receive his verdict in the cases which were tried before him on Friday last and in which the defendants were charged with having disturbed the peace. The Court found both men guilty, and ordered William Manning to pay a fine of $4, while his brother was required to forfeit $8.

A Big Land Suit.

Before 1886 the property lying along First street on the north side between Main and Los Angeles belonged to a family named Alverado. The head of this house died about this time and in the year mentioned Javier Alverado's will, the person in question, was probated, and a sale of this land made under the will. A Mr. Nordholt, bought it in. He died some years ago and left the property to his heirs. Since 1886 the property has been in the possession of the Nordholts, but now come the heirs of Alverado and claim an undivided half interest in it. They claim that only a half interest could be sold under the will, and that that was all that was sold.

The case came up for trial before Judge Van Dyke yesterday, and on the evening previous R. A. Ling, the attorney for the Nordholdts, learned that he needed a witness from Santa Monica, so he drove from here late in the evening, making the journey in an hour and a half, got his witness, and yesterday morning returned to Los Angeles in one hour and ten minutes. He had a grand team.

The case is still on trial.

Street Sweeping.

There is much complaint among Spring and Main street merchants about the nightly performance of the street sweepers. It has always been a rule of the Street Department that no sweeping should be done before 10 o'clock and that the dirt should be thoroughly dampened before the sweeper is applied to it.

People living on Main street report that at about 7:30 in the evening the watering cart goes down the street at a lively rate of speed, scattering a few drops over the car tracks and leaving the rest of the pavement dry. Then come the sweepers and in their wake there follows a cloud of stifling dust which pours into the stores, not yet closed, and does a great deal of damage. The merchants and residents of that section desire that the Street Superintendent should look into this matter.

Ah Bow.

Ah Bow, the prosecuting witness in the assault to murder case before Judge McKinley, Monday, who failed to come to the court, was brought before the Judge yesterday on a charge of contempt.

Bow stated that he and two other Chinamen were brought from Anaheim by a Constable, and as they did not know in what court they were to appear, they told the Constable that they would go to a store on Upper Main street and wait until they were sent for. The officer never came for them, and consequently they did not go to court.

Judge McKinley placed Bow under bonds until 2 p. m. today, to allow him to send to Anaheim and procure the two Chinamen who were with him.

Leonis' Will.

An application for the probate of the will of the late Miguel Leonis was made yesterday by John Roberts, and October 10th is set as the day for the probating of the same. The estate is valued at $286,250. Estimates for probate purposes are being made on a very conservative basis. The estate is generally computed to be worth $750,000.

The Benefits of Advertising.

Ex-Mayor Workman, of Boyle Heights, advertised for a month, a notice to wine-makers and dealers, that he was about to close out his wine business. He received about twenty letters from different sections of this county and Southern California, and in less than a month closed out at a good profit, his entire plant. The shrewd business man always advertises in the HERALD.

G. A. R. Reception.

A reception was tendered to Major and Mrs. Geo. E. Gard by the G. A. R. in the hall in the McDonald block on Main street last evening. An excellent programme of vocal and instrumental music was given, and a couple of recitations were also favorably received. After this part of the reception had been finished, the ladies of the Relief Corps served light refreshments, and about 11 o'clock those who had assembled departed for their homes.

Undelivered Telegrams.

At the Western Union Telegraph office, corner Court and Main streets, September 24, 1889: Mr. H. F. Wallbridge, Mrs. Gussie Brown, S. L. Heck, T. F. Whiteside, Hon. T. K. Riddick.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

In this as in every other locality where it is known, there are hundreds of persons who are taking Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. To those we want to say one word. In nine cases out of every ten it is effecting specific cures. But word comes to us occasionally of people who report that it operates too freely upon the bowels. We want to call the attention of those to the fact that they are not following the printed instructions and are taking too much of it. If it acts too freely reduce the dose, never taking any more at any time than causes easy and perfect action. Keep this injunction in mind, and take it regularly for a while and do not indulge in too much greasy food, and we will have your testimonial within a fortnight. If taken under these conditions it is an absolute cure for indigestion, dyspepsia, sick headaches, constipation, face eruptions and liver and kidney disorders. It may be asked how it can possibly cure so many ailments. But the reason is clear. All those troubles are the legitimate result of improper liver and kidney action or impaired digestive organs. Its effects upon those functions are as astonishing to the medical fraternity as to the thousands who are daily taking it.

CATARRH
Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma,
CONSUMPTION,
Together with Diseases of the Eye, Ear and Heart, successfully treated by
M. HILTON WILLIAMS,

Hollenbeck Block, cor. Spring and Second Sts., Los Angeles, Cal.
All Diseases of the Respiratory Organs treated by the Compound Oxygen
And other Medicated Inhalations.

CATARRH.

Catarrn is often regarded by the patient as a cold i the head, and he often expresses his astonishment at his remarkable tendency to contract a fresh cold. Indeed he declares he is scarcely free from one cold before he takes another; and he is always exceedingly careful. It is also a matter of surprise to him that the cold always seems to settle in the head and the throat.

At times many of the symptoms of catarrh may seem to abate, and the patient is led to hope that the disease is about to wear off; but another class of symptoms soon appear, and he learns to his horror that instead of recovery from the disease it is somewhat changed in its character, and has extended to the throat. A sense of weariness is sometimes felt in reading, speaking or singing, hoarseness at times occurs, a sensation of dryness is sometimes felt in the throat, or it appears that some foreign substance, as, for instance, a hair, obstructed the throat; there becomes a sense of languor and fatigue, the breath lessens upon a little exertion, a short, hacking cough, a peculiar sound in clearing the throat, a feeling as though there was not room enough in the chest to breathe; these and other symptoms occur after the disease has made considerable progress. Then it is a time when consumption is about to begin its dreadful work. Up to this point the progress of the disease may have been slow, and the patient may, in expressing his confident hope that it will "wear off," declare that he has had the catarrh for years, and has not seemed to become much worse, and trusts he will "by and by" recover. But this delusion is the grand error which has peopled our cemeteries with consumptive forms, as all forms of catarrh end finally in consumption.

The great danger, however, because the most common, is that it will extend downward and affect the lungs In most cases of pulmonary disease catarrh is present to some degree, and in many instances it causes a large share of the patient's discomfort.

Besides these grave consequences, all of which are liable to spring from scrofulous catarrh of ozoena, there are others which, if less dangerous, are sufficiently unpleasant. It occasions great unhappiness to thousands of both sexes by isolating them and preventing their settlement in life. An offensive running from the nose, with foul breath, is about as great a calamity as can befall young people. Every disease of this kind can be cured by our new system of practice.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless, unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the Compound Oxygen and other inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing can do with the same success.

The very best reference from those already cured.
